Potential investors should note that an investment in the Securities is only suitable for highly sophisticated investors, who understand the nature of such Securities and the extent of their exposure to risk and have sufficient knowledge, experience and access to professional advisors (including their financial, accounting, legal and tax advisors) in order to form their own legal, tax, accounting and financial opinion upon the existing risks of such investments in such Securities. Each investor contemplating purchasing any Securities should make its own independent evaluation of the financial condition and affairs, and its own appraisal of the creditworthiness of the Issuer.
Neither this Base Prospectus nor any other information supplied in connection with the Programme constitutes an offer or invitation by or on behalf of the Issuer to any person to subscribe for or to purchase any Securities.

The Issuer will be obliged to supplement this Base Prospectus pursuant to Article 16 of the Prospectus Directive. Investors should review inter alia the most recent non-consolidated or consolidated financial statements and interim reports, if any, of the Issuer when deciding whether or not to purchase any Securities.

Otherwise, the following applies:

- If no Barrier Event has occurred or if a Barrier Event has occurred and \( R \) (final) (as defined in C.19) is equal to or greater than \( R \) (initial) (as defined in C.19), redemption is made on the Maturity Date by payment of the redemption amount (the "Redemption Amount"), which corresponds to the Nominal Amount.

RISK FACTORS

The following is a disclosure of Risk Factors that, in the opinion of UniCredit Bank AG as issuer (the "Issuer"), are material with respect to the Issuer and to the securities issued under this base prospectus (the "Base Prospectus") (the "Securities") in order to assess the risk associated with these Securities. Moreover, further risks that are currently unknown or currently believed to be immaterial may also have a negative impact on the value of the Securities. Potential investors should be aware that the Securities may decline in value and that they may sustain a total loss of their investment.

The relevant final terms of the Securities (the "Final Terms") do not replace a consultation with a potential investor’s house bank which will be indispensable in any case. Potential investors should review these Risk Factors carefully before deciding to purchase Securities.

Potential investors should consider all information provided in (a) this Base Prospectus and in any supplements thereto, (b) the registration document of UniCredit Bank AG dated 17 May 2013 (the "Registration Document"), which is incorporated herein by reference, and (c) all documents which are incorporated in the Base Prospectus by reference. An investment in the Securities is only suitable for highly sophisticated investors, who understand the nature of such Securities and the extent of the incorporated risk and who have sufficient knowledge, experience and access to professional advisors (including their financial-, accounting-, legal- and tax advisors) in order to form their own legal, tax, accounting and financial opinion upon the existing risks of such investments. Furthermore, potential investors should be aware that the risks described below may arise separately or cumulatively in combination with other risks and may possibly have mutually reinforcing effects. The order of the risks described below does not imply any statement about the likelihood of occurrence of each risk or the influence of such risk factor on the value of the Securities.

"Security Holder" means the holder of a Security.

A. Risks related to the Issuer

Potential investors should consider the information within the section entitled "Risk Factors" of the Registration Document. This section contains information on risks, which may affect the Issuer's ability to fulfil its obligations arising from the Securities.

B. Risks related to potential conflicts of interest

I. General potential conflicts of interest

The below stated functions of the Issuer, the financial institutions and financial intermediaries with whom the Issuer has entered into distribution agreements (the "Distributors") (see under "Potential conflicts related to other functions of the Issuer - calculation agent or paying agent") or any of their affiliates as well as the below mentioned transactions may have a negative impact on the market value of and/or the amounts payable under the Securities, which may be adverse to the interests of the Security Holders.

Potential conflicts related to the Issue Price

The Securities will be sold at a price determined by the Issuer, the "Issue Price". The Issue Price is based on internal pricing models of the Issuer and may be higher than the market value of the Securities. The Issue Price may contain, beside upfront, management or other fees, an additional premium that may not be obvious to the Security Holders. Such an additional premium depends on several factors, particularly on the volume of the Securities of each series, current and expected market conditions as of the time of the issuance of the Securities. The premium will be added to the original mathematical value of the Securities and may differ between each issue of the Securities as well as from the premiums charged by other market participants.

Potential conflicts related to market maker activities

The Issuer and any of its affiliates may, but are not obliged to, act as a market maker for the Securities. "Market Making" means the Issuer and any of its affiliates continuously quotes bid and offer prices at which the Issuer or any of its affiliates are prepared to trade the Securities in a certain volume. Market Making, carried out especially by the Issuer and any of its affiliates, may substantially influence the liquidity and/or the value of the Securities. The prices quoted by a market maker usually do not correspond to the prices which would have been formed without Market Making and in a liquid market.

Potential conflicts related to Distributors and inducements

Distributors may subscribe the Securities at a price equivalent to or below the Issue Price. A periodic fee may be payable to the Distributors in respect of the Securities until maturity. The rate of the fee will be determined by the Issuer as well as the relevant Distributor and may vary. The Distributors agree to comply with the selling restrictions stated in the Base Prospectus. Distributors act independently and not as agents of the Issuer.

In particular, the Issuer may pay placement- and/or management fees in terms of sales-related commissions to the relevant Distributor. Placement fees are one-off payments. Alternatively, the Issuer can grant an appropriate discount on the Issue Price (without subscription surcharge). Payment of management fees is recurring and dependant on the volume of Securities issued.

Potential conflicts related to other functions of the Issuer - calculation agent or paying agent

The Issuer or any of their affiliates may act as a calculation agent or paying agent. In this function the Issuer or any of their affiliates may, inter alia, calculate amounts payable under the Securities, make adjustments or other determinations, as described in the Final Terms, by i.e. exercising reasonable discretion (§ 315 German Civil Code, Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, "BGB"). The aforementioned calculations, adjustments and determinations may influence the value of, and/or the amounts payable under the Securities and therefore could cause conflicts of interest between the Issuer and any of their affiliates on the one hand and the Security Holders on the other hand since, even if acting within its reasonable discretion, such calculations, adjustments and determinations could be disadvantageous for a Security Holder.

2. Potential conflicts of interest with respect to underlying-linked Securities

Potential conflicts related to transactions in respect of the Underlying

The Issuer or any of its affiliates may occasionally participate in transactions involving securities, fund shares, future contracts, commodities, indices or derivatives for their own account or for the account of their customers which may affect the liquidity or value of the Underlying (as defined below under "D. Risks related to Underlyings") and the Securities and which may be adverse to the interests of the Security Holders.

Potential conflicts related to the issuance of other instruments

The Issuer and any of its affiliates may issue securities with respect to an Underlying on which securities already have been issued. An introduction of such new competing products may negatively affect the market value of the Securities.

Potential conflicts related to information with respect to the Underlying

In the course of their business activities the Issuer, any Distributor or any of their affiliates may be in possession of or may acquire important information (also not publicly available) about an Underlying over the term of the Securities. The issuance of Securities related to such an Underlying does not create any obligation to disclose such information (whether or not confidential) to the Security Holders.

Potential conflicts related to business activities

The Issuer, any Distributor or any of their affiliates may deal with issuers of the Underlyings, any of their affiliates or any guarantor and engage in any kind of commercial or investment banking or other business activities, as if the Securities issued under the Base Prospectus would not exist. Any such action may have a negative impact on an Underlying and the Securities accordingly and could be contrary to the interests of the Security Holders.
Potential conflicts related to other functions of the Issuer – member of a syndicate of banks etc.

The Issuer and any of its affiliates may also act as a member of a syndicate of banks, as financial advisor or as a bank of the sponsor of an Underlying or of the issuer of an Underlying. The aforementioned functions may influence the amounts payable and therefore could lead to conflicts of interest between the Issuer and any of its affiliates with the Security Holders.

C. Risks related to the Securities

I. Risks related to the market

Risk that no active trading market for the Securities exists

The Securities will be newly issued securities, which may not be widely distributed and for which no active trading market may exist and may develop.

Although applications could be made for the Securities to be admitted to the regulated market of any stock exchange or to any market within the European Economic Area, there is no assurance that such applications will be accepted, that a particular tranche of Securities will be admitted or that an active trading market will develop. Accordingly, there is no assurance regarding the development or liquidity of a trading market for a particular tranche of Securities. Neither the Issuer nor a Distributor can assure that a Security Holder will be able to sell their Securities prior to their maturity. If the Securities are not traded on any securities exchange, pricing information for the Securities may be more difficult to obtain which may have a negative effect on the liquidity and the market prices of the Securities.

The Issuer may, but is not obliged to, purchase Securities at any time and at any price in the open market, by tender or private agreement. Any Securities purchased in this way by the Issuer may be held, resold or cancelled.

If the Issuer acts as the only market maker the secondary market may become substantially limited. If there is no market maker, the secondary market may become even more limited. The more limited the secondary market is, the more difficult it may be for Security Holders to realise the value of the Securities prior to the settlement of the Securities. Therefore, a certain risk does exist that Security Holders have to hold the Securities until maturity, early redemption or termination.

Risks relating to the offering volume

The offering volume described in the Final Terms is the same as the maximum volume of the Securities offered, which may be increased at any time. This amount does not allow any conclusions on the volume of the actual Securities issued and thus on the liquidity of a potential secondary market associated with the same risks as stated above.

Risk relating to the market value of the Securities

The market value (or the market price) of the Securities will be affected by the creditworthiness of the Issuer and by a number of further factors such as prevailing interest and yield rates, the market for similar securities, general economic conditions or, as the case may be, the remaining term of the Securities. If the Securities are traded after their initial issuance, these factors may lead to a market value of the Securities being substantially below their Issue Price.

The market value, at which a Security Holder will be able to sell the Securities, may be substantially below the Issue Price. The Issuer does not guarantee that the spread between purchase and selling prices lies within a certain range or remains constant. If the Security Holder sells the Securities at a time where the market value of the Securities is below the Issue Price he will suffer a loss.

Risk relating to the expansion of the spread between bid and offer prices

In special market situations, the Issuer may be unable to conclude hedging transactions, or when such transactions are very difficult to conclude, the spread between the bid and offer prices which will be quoted by the Issuer may be temporarily expanded, in order to limit the economic risk of the Issuer. As a consequence, Security Holders who sell their Securities on an exchange or directly among market participants via so-called over-the-counter dealings (off-exchange) can only sell them at a price that is substantially lower than the actual value of the Securities at the time of the sale and will therefore suffer a loss.

Currency risk with respect to the Securities

The Securities may be denominated in a currency other than the currency of the jurisdiction where the investor is domiciled or where the investor seeks to receive funds. Exchange rates between currencies (the "Currency Exchange Rates") are determined by factors of supply and demand in the international currency markets, which are affected by macro-economic factors, speculations and intervention by the central banks and governments (including the imposition of currency controls and restrictions). Fluctuations in Currency Exchange Rates may have a negative impact on the value of the Securities and may result in a loss. There may be other factors which are almost impossible to predict, such as psychological factors (e.g. a crisis of confidence in the political regime of a country), which also may have a material impact on the value of the relevant currency. Various different sources may be used as references for Currency Exchange Rates. If irregularities or manipulations occur in connection with the exchange rate determination of such sources, this could have material adverse effects on the Securities which are based on the relevant Currency Exchange Rate.

Risk relating to hedging transactions

Security Holders may not be able to make transactions to preclude or limit risks. Their ability to do so will depend on, inter alia, market conditions. In some cases investors may have to carry out such transactions only at a market price that is disadvantageous to them, so that a significant loss will occur.

2. Risks related to Securities in general

Credit risk of the Issuer

Any person who purchases the Securities relies on the creditworthiness of the Issuer and has no rights against any other person. Security Holders are subject to the risk of a partial or total failure of the Issuer to make interest and/or redemption payments which the Issuer is obliged to make due to the Securities. The worse the creditworthiness of the Issuer is the higher is the risk of a loss. Such risk is not protected by the deposit protection scheme of the Association of German Banks (Einlagensicherungsfonds des Bundesverbandes deutscher Banken), the Entschädigungseinrichtung deutscher Banken GmbH or any similar institution.

Possible limitations of the legality of purchase

Neither the Issuer nor any Distributor or any of their affiliates have assumed or assume responsibility towards any potential investor for the legality of the acquisition of the Securities, whether under the laws of the jurisdiction of its incorporation or the jurisdiction in which it operates (if different), or for the compliance by a potential investor with any law, regulation or regulatory policy applicable to it.

Risks arising from financial market turmoil, the German Bank Restructuring Act and other governmental or regulatory interventions

Market turmoil in the international financial markets may affect inflation, interest rates, the price of securities, participation of other investors and thus almost all investments and may lead to (and in the past have led to) extensive governmental interventions. It is generally not possible to predict the structural and/or regulatory changes which may result from current and future market conditions or whether such changes may be materially adverse to the Securities and to their Underlyings, if any. However, the German legislator implemented a bank restructuring act (Gesetz zur Restrukturierung und geordneten Abwicklung von Kredit institute, zur Errichtung eines Restrukturierungsfonds für Kreditinstitute und zur Verlängerung der Verjährungsfrist der aktienrechtlichen Organhaftung, Restrukturierungsgesetz, the "German Bank Restructuring Act") as part of its reaction to the capital markets crisis which begun in 2007. As a German credit institution the Issuer is subject to the German Bank Restructuring Act, which has introduced a special restructuring scheme for German credit institutions on 1 January 2011. This scheme consists of: (i) the restructuring procedure (Sanierungsverfahren) pursuant to sections 2 et seqq. of the German Act on the Reorganisation of Credit Institutions (Kreditinstitute-Reorganisationsgesetz, the "KredReorgG"), (ii) the reorganisation procedure (Reorganisationsverfahren) pursuant to sections 7 et seqq. of the KredReorgG, and (iii) the transfer order (Übertragungsanordnung) pursuant to sections 48a et seqq. of the German Banking Act (Kreditwesengesetz, the "KWG").

Whereas a restructuring procedure generally may not interfere with rights of creditors, the reorganisation plan established under a reorganisation procedure may provide measures that affect the rights of the credit institution's creditors including a reduction of existing claims or a suspension of payments. The measures proposed in the reorganisation plan are subject to a majority vote of the creditors and shareholders of the respective credit institution. Furthermore, the KredReorgG stipulates detailed rules on the voting process and on the required majorities and to what extent negative votes may be disregarded. Measures pursuant to the KredReorgG are instituted by the respective credit institution and after approval by the German Financial Services Supervisory Authority (Bundesanstalt für Finanzdienstleistungsaufsicht, the "BaFin").

Is the existence of the relevant credit institution endangered (Bestandsgefährdung) and does this endanger the stability of the financial system (Systemgefährdung), BaFin may issue a transfer order pursuant to which the credit institution will be forced to transfer whole or parts of its business activities or assets to a so-called bridge bank.

Claims of Security Holders may be negatively affected by the reorganisation plan, which can be adopted by majority vote. In the context of a transfer order, the initial debtor of Securities (the Issuer) may be replaced by another debtor (which may have a fundamentally different risk assumption or creditworthiness than the Issuer). Alternatively, the claims may remain with the original debtor, but this situation regarding the debtor's assets, business activity and/or creditworthiness may not be identical to the situation prior to the transfer order.

In addition, the German legislator has introduced the Second Financial Market Stabilisation Act (Zweites Gesetz zur Umsetzung eines Maßnahmenpakets zur Stabilisierung des Finanzmarktes) which went into force on 1 March 2012. Pursuant to such act, inter alia, the BaFin may impose regulatory measures on a German credit institution if the financial condition of such credit institution raises doubts whether such institute can constantly comply with the capital or liquidity requirements of the KWG. Even though such regulatory measures may not directly interfere with Security Holders' rights, the fact that BaFin applies such measures towards a credit institution may have negative effects, e.g. on the pricing of Securities or on the institute's ability to refinance itself.

Risks due to no own independent review and advice of the investor

Each potential investor must determine, based on its own independent review and, if applicable, professional advice if the purchase of the Securities fully complies (or if the investor is acquiring the Securities in a fiduciary capacity, the beneficiary's) with the investor's financial needs, objectives and restrictions, and whether it is fully consistent with all investment policies, guidelines and restrictions applicable to it (whether acquiring the Securities as principal or in a fiduciary capacity) and if it is a fit, proper and suitable investment for the investor (or if the investor is acquiring the Securities in a fiduciary capacity, for the beneficiary), notwithstanding the substantial risks inherent in investing in or holding the Securities. Otherwise, there is the risk of an unfavorable or unsuitable investment by such investor.

Risks arising from financing the purchase of the Securities

If a potential investor decides to finance the purchase of the Securities with funds borrowed from a third party, the investor should make sure in advance that he can still pay the interest and principal payments on the loan also in the event of a loss. The investor should not rely on gains or profits from the investment in the Securities in order to repay interest and principal of the loans when due and payable. In that case, the expected return must be set higher since the costs relating to the purchase of the Securities and those relating to the loan (interest, redemption, handling fee) have to be taken into account.

Risks arising from transaction costs

When Securities are purchased or sold, several types of incidental costs (including transaction fees and commissions) are incurred beside the purchase or sale price of the Securities. These incidental costs may significantly reduce or even eliminate any profit from holding the Securities. Generally, credit institutions charge commissions which are either fixed minimum commissions or pro-rata commissions, depending on the order value. To the extent that additional – domestic or foreign – parties are involved in the execution of an order, for example domestic dealers or brokers in foreign markets, Security Holders may also be charged for the brokerage fees, commissions and other fees and expenses of such parties (third-party costs).

In addition to such costs directly related to the purchase of Securities (direct costs), potential investors must also take into account any follow-up costs (such as custody fees). Potential investors should inform themselves about any additional costs incurred in connection with the purchase, custody or sale of the Securities before investing in the Securities.

Inflation risk

The inflation risk is the risk of future money depreciation. The real yield from an investment is reduced by inflation. The higher the rate of inflation, the lower the real yield on a Security. If the inflation rate is equal to or higher than the nominal yield, the real yield is zero or even negative.

Risks arising from transactions to reduce risks

Any person intending to use the Securities as a hedging instrument should recognise the correlation risk. The correlation risk in this case is the risk that the estimated and the actual correlation of the Securities may differ. This means that the hedging position estimated to move in the opposite direction as a security may prove to be correlated with the security, and that this may lead to failure of the envisaged hedging transaction. The Securities may not be a perfect hedge to an underlying or portfolio of which the underlying forms a part. In addition, it may not be possible to liquidate the Securities at a level which directly reflects the price of the Underlying or portfolio of which the Underlying forms a part.

Risks related to Taxation

General

Potential purchasers and sellers of Securities should be aware that they may be required to pay taxes or other charges or duties in accordance with the laws and practices of the country where the Securities are transferred to or held or other jurisdictions. In some jurisdictions, no official statements, rulings and/or guidelines of the tax authorities or court decisions may be available for innovative financial instruments such as the Securities. Potential investors are advised not to rely on the tax summary contained in this document but to also ask for their own tax advisors' advice on their individual taxation with respect to the acquisition, sale or redemption of the Securities. Only these advisors are in a position to duly consider the specific situation of the potential investor.

Payments under index-linked Securities and equity-linked Securities may be subject to U.S. withholding tax

Under the United States Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, (the "IRC") a "dividend equivalent" payment is treated as a dividend from sources within the United States and is subject to withholding at the rate of 30% unless reduced by an applicable tax treaty with the United States ("DEP Withholding"). A "dividend equivalent" payment includes (i) a payment made pursuant to a "specified notional principal contract" that (directly or indirectly) is contingent upon, or determined by reference to, the payment of a dividend from sources within the United States, and (ii) any other payment determined by the U. S. Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") be substantially similar to a payment described in the clause (i). In the case of payments made after 18 March 2012, a "dividend equivalent" payment includes a payment made pursuant to any "notional principal contract" unless otherwise exempted by the IRS. Where the securities reference an interest in a fixed basket of securities or an index, such fixed basket or index will be treated as a single security. Where the securities reference an interest in a basket of securities or an index that may provide for the payment of dividends from sources within the United States, absent guidance from the IRS, it is uncertain whether the IRS would determine that payments under the index-linked Securities and equity-linked Securities are substantially similar to a dividend. If the IRS determines that a payment is substantially similar to a dividend, it may be subject to U.S. withholding tax, unless reduced by an applicable tax treaty.
If an amount in respect of U.S. withholding tax were to be deducted or withheld from payments on index-linked Securities or equity-linked Securities, none of the Issuer, any paying agent or any other person would pursuant to the conditions of the Securities be required to pay additional amounts as a result of the deduction or withholding of such tax.

Payments under the Securities may be subject to withholding tax pursuant to the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA)

The Issuer and financial institutions through which payments on the Securities are made may be required to withhold at a rate of up to 30% on all, or a portion of, payments made after December 31, 2016 in respect of the Securities, pursuant to Sections 1471 through 1474 of the U.S. Internal Revenue Code (commonly referred to as “FATCA”) if the Securities are significantly modified after the date (the "Grandfathering Date") that is six months after the date on which final U.S. Treasury regulations that define the term "foreign passthru payment" are published in the U.S. Federal Register, or if additional Securities are sold after the Grandfathering Date that are not issued pursuant to a "qualified reopening" for U.S. federal income tax purposes. Significant aspects of the application of FATCA are not currently clear. The application of FATCA in relation to payments under the Securities may be influenced by international treaties entered into between the USA and the home state of the Issuer or other financial institutes involved in the payments under the Securities. If, in relation with FATCA withholding tax, an amount is withheld from interest, capital or other payments as a result of non-compliance with FATCA, neither the Issuer nor the paying agent or any other person will be obliged, pursuant to the conditions, to pay any additional amounts to the investor as a result of such deduction or withholding. Consequently, the investor might receive a reduced payment in contrast to a payment which is not subject to such deduction or withholding.

3. Risks related to Underlying-linked Securities

Generally, an investment in Securities, where the interest and/or the principal is determined by reference to an Underlying (the "Underlying linked-Securities"), may entail significant risks not associated with comparable investments in conventional debt securities. The value of an Underlying-linked Security is dependent on the price of the Underlying and therefore bears risks associated with the Underlying beside risks associated with the Security itself.

On the one hand the probability of a total loss of the invested capital may be substantially higher than in a direct investment in the relevant Underlying. This probability depends on how the amounts payable under the Securities are linked to the development of the relevant Underlying.

On the other hand such risks include that the Security Holders will receive no interest at all, that the resulting return will be less than that payable on a conventional debt security with the same term and/or that the Security Holder could fully or substantially lose their capital invested. Therefore, to be in a position to bear any losses incurred, the capital invested for the purchasing of the Securities should be taken from excess internal funds.

Risks arising from the influence of the Underlying on the market value of the Securities

Potential investors should be aware that the market value of the Securities may be very volatile depending on the volatility of the relevant Underlying.

The market value of the Securities is primarily influenced by changes in the price of the Underlying to which the Securities are linked. The price of the Underlying may depend on a number of inter-related factors, including economic, financial and political events and their general effect on capital markets and on the relevant stock exchanges. It is not possible to predict how the price of the Underlying will develop in the future.

Potential investors should note that whilst the market value of the Securities is linked to the value of the Underlying and may be negatively influenced by the relevant Underlying, not any change may be equally influencing and may lead to disproportionate changes. The value of the Securities may drop while at the same time the price of the relevant Underlying may increase in value. Especially for Underlyings with a high volatility this may lead to amounts payable under the Securities being significantly lower than the value of the Underlying prior to the observation date might have suggested.
Risks arising from the fact that the valuation of the Underlying occurs only at a specified date or time

The amounts payable under the Securities may be calculated by reference to a valuation of the Underlying on an Observation date as specified in the Final Terms and may not consider the performance of the Underlying prior to such observation date. Even if the Underlying performed positively up to the period prior to the observation date and if the value of the Underlying only decreased on such an observation date, the calculation of the amounts payable under the Securities only grounds on the value of the Underlying on the relevant observation date. Especially for Underlyings showing a high volatility this may lead to amounts payable being significantly lower than the value of the Underlying than the observation date has suggested. Where the Underlying comprises more than one component, the positive performance of one or more components may be outweighed/eliminated by a negative performance of other components.

Risks arising from the impact of thresholds or limits

Potential investors should note that, if specified in the Final Terms, any amounts only may be payable if certain thresholds or limits (such as in the definition of Strike or Strike Level) have not been reached in accordance with the Final Terms. If the respective threshold or limit, as specified in the Final Terms, has been reached, the respective Security Holder is not entitled to receive the amount specified in the Final Terms.

Risks arising from the impact of Barrier Events

The risk that a Barrier Event occurs depends on whether the Final Terms provide for a date-related Barrier observation or a continuous Barrier observation. The risk of the occurrence of a Barrier Event increases as the length of the period increases and as the number of dates increases on which the Barrier Event may occur. The closer a Security comes to the end of its term, the higher the potential loss of the investor should the Barrier Event occur. The occurrence of a Barrier Event may also have a significant influence on the price of the Security and its volatility. If, in the case of the occurrence of a Barrier Event, the Final Terms provide for a limitation of the redemption to a Maximum Amount, the Security Holder can only participate in the recovery of the price of the Underlying up to such a Maximum Amount.

Risks in relation to a Ratio

The application of a ratio within the calculation of amounts payable, as specified in the Final Terms, may result in the Security being in economic terms similar to a direct investment in the relevant Underlying, but being nonetheless not fully comparable with such a direct investment, in particular because the Security Holder does not participate in the relevant performance by a 1:1 ratio, but by the proportion of the ratio (e.g. 1:10 or 1:100).

Risks arising from a limitation of the potential returns to a Maximum Amount

Potential investors should note that any amounts payable or the quantity of Underlyings or, as the case may be, other assets to be delivered according to the Final Terms, may be limited to the Maximum Amount as specified in the Final Terms. As a result, unlike a direct investment in the relevant Underlying, the potential returns under the Securities are limited to the Maximum Amount.

Risks due to express structures

Potential investors should note that, under certain circumstances, the Securities are automatically early redeemed if an Early Redemption Event (which depends on the performance of the relevant Underlying) occurs. In this case, the Security Holder is entitled to receive a certain payment of the Underlying in accordance with the Final Terms, but will neither participate in the future performance of the relevant Underlying nor be entitled to further payments under the Securities after this early redemption. As a result, the Security Holder bears the risk of not participating in the performance of the Underlying to the expected extent and during the expected term of the Security and consequently of receiving less than the capital invested. In the case of an early redemption of the Securities, the Security Holder also bears the reinvestment risk.

In the case of Securities with consideration of a Barrier Event, the occurrence of the Barrier Event may in certain circumstances trigger the lapse of the chance of Early Redemption. In this case, the potential investor is not entitled to payment of the Early Redemption Amount, but will participate in the performance of the relevant Underlying until the Maturity Date. As a result, the Security Holder bears the risk that the price of the Underlying performs negatively during the term of the Security and that there is a possibility of (total) loss of the invested capital, if the price of the Underlying falls accordingly.

Risk of postponement or alternative provisions for the valuation of the Underlying

In certain circumstances which are set out in the Final Terms, the Issuer and the Calculation Agent has broad discretion to specify (i) a consequential postponement of, or (ii) any alternative provisions for the valuation of an Underlying respectively including a determination of the value of such Underlying, each of which may have an adverse effect on the value of the Securities.

Risks associated with Securities where Additional Amounts are linked to an Underlying Potential investors should be aware that the Issuer will only pay Additional Amounts on the Securities if an Additional Amount Payment Event has occurred. If such Additional Amounts become payable, and their amount, depends on whether Reference Price on the relevant Observation Date is greater than, equal to or lower than the specified Additional Amount Payment Level on a specific date.

The Additional Amounts payable on such Securities may be significantly lower than the amounts payable on a conventional security of the Issuer or of an equivalent other issuer at the same time. It may be the case that the Security Holder will not receive any payments of Additional Amounts at all during the entire term of the Securities.

Currency risk with respect to the Underlying

The Underlyings may be denominated in a different currency than the payment currency of the Securities. If the currency risk remains with the Security Holder (i.e. the Securities do not have a "quanto" element in terms of that the price of the Underlying will be converted from one currency into the currency of the Securities, as may be specified in the Final Terms) the investor may incur further losses on interest or principal payments.

Risks in relation to adjustment events

In the case of the occurrence of an adjustment event as specified in the Final Terms, the calculation agent, as specified in the Final Terms, is entitled to carry out adjustments according to the Final Terms in its reasonable discretion. Although these adjustments intend to retain the economic situation of the Security Holders unchanged to the largest extent possible, it cannot be guaranteed that such an adjustment only leads to a minimal economic impact. In fact, this adjustment may also have a negative impact on the value or the future performance of the Securities.

Risk of Market Disruptions

If the Final Terms include provisions dealing with the occurrence of market disruptions and the calculation agent determines that a market disruption has occurred or currently exists, any consequential postponement of, or any alternative provisions for, valuation provided in such Security may have an adverse effect on its value and the point of time where a payment takes place.

Risk of regulatory consequences to investors in Underlying-linked Securities

There may be negative regulatory and other consequences associated with the ownership by certain investors of certain Securities. Each purchaser of the Securities must conduct its own investigation regarding its regulatory position in connection with the potential purchase of the Securities. The Issuer does not assume any obligation or liability whatsoever towards such a purchaser.

Risks arising from negative effect of hedging arrangements by the Issuer on the Securities

The Issuer may use a portion or the total proceeds from the sale of the Securities on transactions to hedge the risks of the Issuer relating to the Securities. In such case, the Issuer or any of its affiliates may conclude transactions that correspond to the obligations of the Issuer under the Securities.
Generally, such transactions are concluded prior to or on the Issue Date, but it is also possible to conclude such transactions after the Issue Date. On or prior to such a Observation Date the Issuer or any of its affiliates may take the steps necessary for closing out any hedging arrangements. It cannot, however, be ruled out that the price of the Underlying of the Securities will be influenced by such transactions in individual cases. Entering into or closing out these hedging arrangements may have a negative effect on the market price of the Securities and/or on the amounts payable under the Securities.

Risks arising from the Issuer's extraordinary call right

The Issuer has the right to call the Securities extraordinarily upon the occurrence of an event specified in the Final Terms (e.g. no suitable replacement underlying is available, a change in law has occurred) at the market value of the Securities. If the market value of the Securities at the time of the extraordinary call is lower than the purchase price of the Securities, the respective Security Holder will suffer a partial or total loss of its invested capital.

Risks in relation to physical delivery

Certain Securities linked to a share as Underlying may provide as method of settlement at maturity either that the investor receives a payment only (the "Cash Settlement") or, as the case may be, that the investor receives a Cash Settlement or a delivery of shares (the "Physical Delivery"). In the case of a sole Cash Settlement the Securities shall be redeemed by payment of the Redemption Amount.

Upon issuance it is not clear how the Securities will be settled at the end of their term. The determination of the settlement method depends on the performance of the Underlying only. Therefore the Security Holder is exposed to the risk that the Securities held by him are not redeemed at a monetary amount, but by delivery of shares whose value may be lower than the issue price. Therefore the investor should become familiar with the possibility of a delivery of shares prior to his investment decision.

Should the Securities be settled by delivery no rights arise from the shares until the such shares are transferred to the Security Holder. The price of such shares may develop negatively in the period from the relevant Observation Date and such transfer and only the Security Holder bears the risk of such price movements. The price of the shares delivered will regularly be lower than the current market price at the time of the transfer and the Security Holder will therefore suffer a loss. Furthermore, upon sale of the shares delivered transaction costs may arise which may lead to or increase a possible loss. Furthermore, Security Holders should not assume that they will be able to sell the shares delivered for a specific price, in particular not for a price corresponding to, or being greater than, the capital invested for the acquisition of the Securities. The shares delivered may have a substantially lower value or no value at all. In addition, the shares delivered may be subject to selling and transfer restrictions or may not be liquid for other reasons. In addition, commissions and other transaction costs that, as the case may be, may arise upon disposal of the shares delivered may – in particular in the case of a low order value (for which higher commissions may be charged than for higher order values) – lead to a significant negative effect on the costs and therefore significantly reduce the proceeds from such shares.

Should the delivery of shares become economically or actually difficult or impossible for whatever reason, there might be provided that the Issuer has the right to pay a cash value instead of the delivery of the respective asset.

D. Risks relating to Underlyings

The Securities may be linked to indices, commodities, precious metals and futures contracts (each an "Underlying"). Those Underlyings are subject to particular risks. Any full or partial realisation of the following risks may have a negative impact on the price of the Underlying and, hence, on the market value of and/or the amounts payable (if any).

1. General risks

Risks arising from the volatility of the value of the Underlying and risk due to a short history

The value of the Underlying or of its constituents (if any) may vary over time and may increase or decrease due to a variety of factors e.g. corporate actions, macroeconomic factors and speculation. Potential investors should note that an investment in an Underlying-linked Security may be subject to similar risks than a direct investment in the relevant Underlying.
Security Holders should note that the past performance of an Underlying provides no indication of its future performance and that an Underlying may only have a short operating history or may have been in existence only for a short period of time and may deliver results over the longer term lower than initially expected.

No rights of ownership of the Underlying

Potential investors should be aware that the relevant Underlying will not be held by the Issuer for the benefit of the investors in such Securities, and as such, Security Holders will not obtain any rights of ownership (including, without limitation hereto, voting rights, rights to receive dividends or other distributions or other rights) with respect to an Underlying in relation to such Securities. Neither the Issuer nor any of its affiliates is obliged to acquire or hold an Underlying.

Risks associated with Underlyings subject to emerging market jurisdictions

An Underlying or its constituents (if any) may be subject to the jurisdiction of an emerging market. Investing in Securities with such Underlyings involves further legal, political (e.g. rapid political changes) and economical (e.g. economic downturns) risks.

Countries that fall into this category are usually considered to be 'emerging' because of their developments and reforms and their economy being in the process of changing from a moderately developed country to an industrial country.

In emerging markets, expropriation, taxation equivalent to confiscation, political or social instability or diplomatic incidents may have a negative impact on an investment in the Securities. The amount of publicly available information with respect to the Underlying or any of its components may be smaller than that normally made available to Security Holders.

Transparency requirements, accounting, auditing and financial reporting standards as well as regulatory standards are in many ways less strict than standards in industrial countries.

Although emerging financial markets generally show rising volumes, some emerging financial markets have much lower trading volumes than developed markets and the securities of many companies are less liquid and their prices are subject to stronger fluctuations than those of similar companies in developed markets.

2. Risks associated with shares as Underlying

Similar risks to a direct investment in shares

The market price of Instruments with a share as Underlying depends on the performance of the share. The performance of a share may be subject to factors like the dividend or distribution policy, financial prospects, market position, corporate actions, shareholder structure and risk situation of the issuer of the share, short selling activities and low market liquidity as well as to political influences. Accordingly, an investment in Instruments with a share as Underlying may bear similar risks to a direct investment in shares.

Investors have no shareholder rights

The Instruments convey no interest in a share as an Underlying, including any voting rights or rights to receive dividends, interest or other distributions, as applicable, or any other rights with respect to the share as an Underlying. The Issuer and any of its affiliates may choose not to hold the shares or any derivatives contracts linked to the shares. Neither the Issuer nor any of its affiliates is restricted from selling, pledging or otherwise conveying all right, title and interest in any shares or any derivatives contracts linked to the shares by virtue solely of it having issued the Instruments.

No registration in the register of members in the case of physical delivery of Registered Shares

If the Underlying is a share that is registered in the name of the holder or if the shares contained in an underlying (e.g. in an index or a Basket) are registered in the name of the holder (each a "Registered Share"), and if the Issuer is obliged to deliver these shares to the investor in accordance with the Final Terms, the rights under the shares (e.g. participation in the annual general meeting and exercise of voting rights) may only be exercised by shareholders that are registered in the register of members or a comparable official shareholder register of the issuer of such Registered Shares. In the case of Registered Shares, any obligation incumbent upon the Issuer to deliver the shares is limited solely to the provision of the shares in a form and with features that allow for stock-exchange delivery and does not cover entry into the register of members. In such cases, any claims due to non-performance, in particular reversal of the transaction or damages, are excluded.

Risks related to ADRs/RDRs

Depository receipts in the form of American Depository Receipts (ADRs) or Regional Depository Receipts (RDRs) may bear additional risks compared with risks related to shares. Depository receipts are participation certificates in a portfolio of shares normally held in the country of incorporation of the issuer of the underlying shares and represent one or more shares or a fraction of such shares. For depository receipts, the legal owner of the underlying share portfolio is the custodian bank, which is at the same time the issuing agent of the depository receipts. Depending on the jurisdiction in which the depository receipts will be issued and to which jurisdiction the custody agreement is subject, it cannot be ruled out that the respective jurisdiction does not recognise the holder of the depository receipts as the actual beneficial owner of the underlying shares. Especially in the event of insolvency of the custodian bank or foreclosure against it, it is possible that shares underlying the depository receipts are restricted or that these shares may be sold to realise their value in the case of foreclosure against the custodian bank. If that is the case, the holder of the depository receipts loses the rights to the underlying shares certified by the participation certificate and the depository receipt becomes worthless.

3. Risks related to indices as Underlying

Similar risks to a direct investment in Index Components

The market value of Securities with an index as Underlying depends primarily on the performance of the index. The performance of the index depends on the performance of the components contained in the index (the "Index Components"). Accordingly, an investment in Securities with an index as Underlying may bear similar risks to a direct investment in the Index Components.

No influence of the Issuer on the index

If the Issuer or any of its affiliates simultaneously are not the index sponsor, the method of calculation, determination and publication of the index (the "Index Concept") are carried out by the index sponsor itself or together with other organisations. In this case, the Issuer neither has influence on the index nor on the Index Concept. Amendments to the Index Concept by the index sponsor may have a negative effect on the performance of the index, and thus on the market value of, and the amounts payable under the Securities.

If the Issuer or any of its affiliates simultaneously are not the index sponsor, the Securities with an Index as Underlying are not in any way sponsored, endorsed, sold or promoted by the index sponsor. Such index sponsor makes no warranty or representation whatsoever, express or implied, either as to the results to be obtained from the use of the index or the prices at which the index stands at a particular time. Such index is composed, calculated (if so) and determined by its respective index sponsor independently from the Issuer of the Securities. Such index sponsor is not responsible or liable for the issuance, the administration, the marketing or the trading of the Securities.

Risks arising from special conflicts of interests in relation to indices as Underlying

If the Issuer or any of its affiliates acts itself as index sponsor, index calculation agent, advisor, or as a member of an index committee this may lead to conflicts of interest. In such a function the Issuer or any of its affiliates may, inter alia, calculate the value of the Underlying, make adjustments (e.g. by exercising its reasonable discretion according to the Final Terms) to the terms and conditions of the Securities, replace the Underlying and/or determine the composition of the Underlying. This conflict of interests may have a negative effect on the performance of the index, and thus on the market value of, and/or the amounts payable under the Securities.

Risks in relation to strategy indices as Underlying

Strategy indices represent hypothetical rule-based investment strategies (i.e., no actual trading or investment activities take place) conducted by an index sponsor. As a general rule, strategy indices entitle the index sponsor to extensively exercise its discretion when calculating the index which may lead under certain circumstances to a negative performance of the index.

Risks in relation to price indices as Underlying

If the Underlying is a price index, dividends or other distributions paid out with respect to Index Components will not be considered when calculating the price of the index and consequently have a negative impact on the price of the index, because the index components will be traded with a discount after the pay-out of dividends or distributions. Thus, Security Holders generally do not participate from dividends or other distributions paid out or made on components contained in the index.

Risks in relation to net return indices as Underlying

If the Underlying is a net return index, dividends or other distributions paid out or made on the Index Components will be considered only when calculating the price of the index as net payments after deduction of an average tax rate. This tax deduction has the effect that the price of the net return index does not rise as strong as the price of a comparable total return index or performance index, for the calculation of which gross payments will be taken into account.

Risks in relation to short indices as Underlying

If the Underlying is a short index potential investors should be aware that this index develops in a reverse manner to its underlying prices. This means that the price of the short index generally rises when its underlying prices drop and that the price of the short index drops when its underlying prices rise.

Risks in relation to leverage indices as Underlying

If the Underlying is a leverage index potential investors should be aware that this index consists of two different components, the index to which the leverage index refers (the "Reference Index") and the leverage factor (the "Leverage Factor"). The performance of the leverage index is linked to the daily percentage development of the Reference Index under application of the Leverage Factor. Depending on the respective Leverage Factor the daily price of the Underlying falls or rises stronger than the price of the respective Reference Index. Therefore the Security Holder bears the risk of disproportionate loss of his invested capital.

If the leverage index has exceeded a certain threshold due to extraordinary price movements during a trading day, the leverage index may be adjusted intra-daily in accordance with the relevant Index Concept. Such adjustment may lead to a reduced participation of the leverage index in a subsequent increase in price of the Reference Index.

If the Underlying is a leverage index Security Holders may be subject to an increased risk of loss or even suffer a total loss of the invested capital.

Risks in relation to distributing indices as Underlying

If the Underlying is a distributing index dividends or other distributions paid out or made on the Index Components will be considered in the theoretical cash component (as specified in the Final Terms) when calculating the price of the index. After a dividend observation date (as specified in the Final Terms) dividends or other distributions accrued between two dividend observation dates are paid out to the Security Holder. Security Holders should be aware that after such a dividend observation date the cash component will be reset to zero and the price of the index will be reduced accordingly.

Risks in relation to excess return indices as Underlying

If the Underlying is an excess return index the investor invests in future contracts using a Roll-Over; this means that an underlying futures contract as well as following futures contracts, if applicable, will be replaced by a futures contract, which except for its later expiration date has the same contract specifications as the underlying (the "Roll-Over"). When calculating the price of an excess return index losses due to a Roll-Over may arise. The rolling in the next futures contract may lead to a negative effect on the development of the price of the index. Especially differences between spot and future prices may arise. Prices of futures contracts may substantially differ from spot-prices for commodities, to which the futures contract refers, which may also have a negative impact on the performance of the price of the index.

Risk of country or sector related indices

If an index reflects the performance of assets only of certain countries or sectors, this index is affected disproportionately negative in the case of an unfavourable development in such a country or industrial sector.

Currency exchange risk contained in the index

Index Components may be listed in different currencies and therefore exposed to different currency influences (this particularly applies to country or sector related indices). Furthermore, it is possible that Index Components are converted firstly from one currency to the currency which is relevant for the calculation of the index, and then converted again in order to calculate and determine the amounts payable under the Securities. In such cases, Security Holders are subject of several currency risks, which may not be obvious for a Security Holder.

Adverse effect of fees on the index level

If the index composition is adjusted in accordance with the relevant Index Concept, fees may arise that are subject of the index calculation and which reduce the level of the index. This may have a negative effect on the performance of the index, on the market value of, and the amounts payable under, the Securities. Indices which reflect certain markets or sectors may use certain derivative financial instruments. This may lead to higher fees and thus a lower performance of the index than it would have been the case with a direct investment in these markets or sectors.

Risks with respect to the publication of the index composition which is not constantly updated

Some index sponsors publish the composition of the relevant indices not entirely or only with retardation on a website or in other public media specified in the Final Terms. In this case the composition exposed might not always correspond with the current composition of the respective index used for calculating the amounts payable under the Securities. The delay may be substantial and, under certain circumstances and may last several months. In this case the calculation of the index may not be fully transparent to the Security Holders.

4. Risks related to commodities as Underlying

Similar risks as a direct investment in commodities

An investment in commodity-linked Securities bears similar market risks to a direct investment in this commodity.

Higher risks than other asset classes

An investment in commodities is associated with higher risks than investments in other asset classes like e.g. bonds, currencies or stocks, because prices in this asset category are subject to greater fluctuations (volatility) and markets may be less liquid than e.g. stock markets.

Risks arising from price influencing factors

The following factors (which is a non-exhaustive list) may influence the commodity prices: supply and demand; speculations in the financial markets; production bottlenecks; delivery difficulties; hardly any market participants; production in emerging markets (political turmoils, economic downturns); political risks (war, terrorist actions); unfavourable weather conditions; natural disasters.

Risks arising from the trading in various time zones and on different markets

Commodities (e.g. oil, gas, wheat, corn, gold, silver) are traded on a global basis almost non-stop in various time zones on different specialised exchanges or markets (e.g. different futures exchanges) or directly among market participants (over the counter). This may lead to a publication of different prices for a commodity in different places. The Final Terms specify which exchange or market and which timing apply regarding the specification of the price of the relevant Underlying.

GENERAL INFORMATION ON THE SECURITIES

Features of the Securities

General

The Securities will be issued as non-par value notes/certificates or as par-value notes/certificates, both of which are bearer debt instruments (Inhaberschuldverschreibungen) pursuant to § 793 German Civil Code (Bürgerliches Gesetzbuch, BGB). The payment of the Early Redemption Amount, the method of calculating the Redemption Amount of the Securities and the provisions as to whether, in cases where the Underlying are shares or depository receipts, physical delivery of the Underlying is made are linked to the value of the Underlying at a certain moment.

Under this Base Prospectus, Securities of the following product types are issued:

- Reverse Convertible Classic Securities (Product Type 1)
- Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities (Product Type 2)
- Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities (Product Type 3)
- Express Classic Securities (Product Type 4)
- Express Plus Securities (Product Type 5)
- Express Securities with Additional Amount (Product Type 6)

Underlyings

The Underlying of the Securities may be either a share or an American Depository Receipt (ADR) or a Regional Depository Receipt (RDR) (respectively a "Depository Receipt"), an index or a commodity. The value of the Underlying is the main influencing factor on the value of the Securities.

In general, the Security Holders participate in any positive as well as in any negative performance of the Underlying during the term of the Securities. If the value of the Underlying rises, the value of the Securities regularly rises. If the value of the Underlying falls, the value of the Securities regularly falls accordingly.

The deduction of any fees or other price-influencing factors may also influence the actual performance of the Securities.

Term

The Securities have a fixed term, which may be reduced in certain circumstances.

Quanto elements

Non-Quanto Securities are Securities where the Underlying Currency is the same as the Specified Currency. Quanto Securities are Securities where the Underlying Currency is not the same as the Specified Currency and where a currency hedging element is provided. In the case of Quanto Securities, the quantity of the Underlyings to be delivered and/or the Supplemental Cash Amount is increased or reduced before delivery according to the exchange rate development in order to offset any exchange rate losses or gains during the term of the Securities.

Issue Price

Securities may be issued at an issue price which will be either specified in the column "Issue Price" in Table 1.1 of § 1 of the Product and Underlying Data or if the issue price has not been specified at the time of creation of the Final Terms the issue price per Security will be specified and published thereafter on a website as indicated in the Final Terms.
Pricing
The Issue Price as well as the bid and offer prices quoted by the Issuer during the term of the Securities are based on internal pricing models of the Issuer. The Issue Price may contain, beside upfront and distribution fees, an expected margin for the Issuer. Generally, the margin may contain costs, which, i.a., cover the Issuer's costs for structuring the Securities, risk hedging of the Issuer and the distribution.

Selling concession or other concessions
A selling concession or other concession may be charged as set out in the Final Terms.

Placing and Distribution
The Securities may be distributed by way of public or private placements and, in each case, through financial intermediaries as agreed between the Issuer and the relevant financial intermediary. The method of distribution of each tranche will be stated in the applicable Final Terms.

Admission to Trading and Listing of the Securities
Application has been made to the Irish Stock Exchange for the Securities to be admitted to its official list and trading on its regulated market. The regulated market of the Irish Stock Exchange is a regulated market for the purposes of the Markets in Financial Instruments Directive. Application may be made to list and trade Securities to be issued under the Programme on the markets or trading systems as set out in the Final Terms. In such a case the Final Terms set out all the regulated markets or equivalent markets, on which, to the knowledge of the Issuer, securities of the same class of securities are already admitted to trading. However, Securities may also be issued under the Programme without being listed on any stock exchange.

Potential investors
The Securities may be offered to qualified investors and/or retail investors and/or institutional investors as stated in the Final Terms. If the offer is being made simultaneously in the markets of two or more countries and if a tranche has been or is being reserved for certain of these, such information will be given in the Final Terms.

Terms and conditions of the offer
The following details regarding the terms and conditions of the offer will be indicated in the Final Terms: (i) the country(ies) where the offer(s) to the public takes place, (ii) the conditions for the offer of the Securities; (iii) day of the first public offer; (iv) possibility to reduce or increase the number of securities offered for sale by the Issuer; (v) smallest transferable and/or tradable unit; (vi) possibility of an early termination of the public offer; (vii) a subscription period.

Offer during a subscription period
The Securities may be offered during a subscription period. For the purpose of acquisition, a potential investor has to make a subscription order to be forwarded to the Issuer during the Subscription Period. If specified in the Final Terms, the Securities may subsequently be offered. The Issuer reserves the right to extend or shorten the subscription period or to withdraw the issue before the issue date during the Subscription Period for any reason. The Issuer has the right to accept or reject the subscription orders of potential investors in whole or in part, irrespective of whether or not the intended volume of the Securities to be placed is reached. The Issuer has the right to make allocations at its own discretion; whether and to what extent the Issuer exercises such right is subject to its own discretion. Potential investors who made purchase offers in the form of subscription orders may presumably be informed by the Issuer from the first Banking Day onwards following the end of the subscription period on the number of Securities allocated to them.
DESCRIPTION OF THE SECURITIES

The definitions of the defined terms used herein are specified in the Conditions (as defined in the section "Conditions of the Securities") below.

Product Type 1: Reverse Convertible Classic Securities

General

Reverse Convertible Classic Securities bear interest during the term of the Securities. If R (final) is equal to or greater than the Strike, redemption is made by payment of the Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount. Otherwise, redemption depends on the Reference Price.

In respect of their redemption, Reverse Convertible Classic Securities may be linked to shares or depository receipts as well as indices or commodities.

For Reverse Convertible Classic Securities linked to shares or depository receipts, it may be specified that redemption as at the Maturity Date is made

- for Securities with cash settlement exclusively by payment of a Redemption Amount or
- for Securities with physical delivery by cash settlement or by physical delivery of a certain quantity of the Underlying.

Reverse Convertible Classic Securities linked to indices or commodities are always issued as Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with cash settlement.

Reverse Convertible Classic Securities can be issued as non-Quanto or Quanto Securities. Non-Quanto means that the Underlying is traded in the Specified Currency and the Security Holder is therefore not exposed to any exchange rate risk. Quanto means that the Underlying is traded in a currency other than the Specified Currency. However, the exchange rate risk for the Security Holder as at the Maturity Date is excluded.

Interest

Reverse Convertible Classic Securities bear interest on their Aggregate Nominal Amount or on their Nominal Amount for each Interest Period at the Interest Rate (expressed in each case as a percentage per year):

- Fixed rate Reverse Convertible Classic Securities bear interest at a fixed interest rate specified in the Final Terms.
- Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with different interest rates for each Interest Period bear interest at the different Interest Rates specified in the Final Terms for the respective Interest Period.
- Floating rate Reverse Convertible Classic Securities bear interest at an interest rate which corresponds to the offered rate for deposits in the Reference Currency for the Designated Maturity. The Reference Rate is determined on the Screen Page on each Interest Determination Date and specified for the relevant Interest Period. It may be specified that for the calculation of the Interest Rate a Positive Spread is added to or a Negative Spread deducted from the Reference Rate. Alternatively, it may be specified that the Reference Rate is multiplied by a Factor.

A Maximum Interest Rate may be specified for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities. This means that, if the Interest Rate determined for an Interest Period is greater than the Maximum Interest Rate, the Interest Rate for this Interest Period is the Maximum Interest Rate.

A Minimum Interest Rate may also be specified for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities. This means that, if the Interest Rate determined for an Interest Period is lower than the Minimum Interest Rate, the Interest Rate for this Interest Period is the Minimum Interest Rate.
The respective Interest Amount to be paid is calculated by multiplying the product of the Interest Rate and the Aggregate Nominal Amount or the Nominal Amount by the Day Count Fraction. The respective Interest Amount falls due for payment on the relevant Interest Payment Date.

Redemption

For Reverse Convertible Classic Securities, redemption as at the Maturity Date upon automatic exercise depends on:

- the Strike
- R (final).

The Strike is:

- specified by the Issuer when setting up the Security or equal to a specified percentage of R (initial).

R (initial) means:

- for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with initial Reference Price observation, the Reference Price on the Initial Observation Date or
- for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with initial average observation, the equally weighted average of the Reference Prices determined on the Initial Observation Dates or
- for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with worst-in observation, the lowest Reference Price during the Worst-in Period.

R (final) means:

- for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with final Reference Price observation, the Reference Price on the Final Observation Date or
- for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with final average observation, the equally weighted average of the Reference Prices determined on the Final Observation Dates or
- for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with best-out observation, the highest Reference Price during the Best-out Period.

If R (final) is equal to or greater than the Strike, redemption is made for all Reverse Convertible Classic Securities by payment of the Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount.

If R (final) is lower than the Strike, redemption is made:

- for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with cash settlement by payment of the Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount multiplied by R (final), divided by the Strike or
- for Reverse Convertible Classic Securities with physical delivery by delivery of the Underlying in a quantity expressed by the Ratio per Security. If the Ratio leads to a non-deliverable fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount of the non-deliverable fraction of the Underlying.

The Securities shall be deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

Product Type 2: Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities

General

Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities bear interest during the term of the Securities. If no Barrier Event has occurred, redemption is made as at the Maturity Date by payment of a Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount. If a Barrier Event has occurred, redemption depends on the Reference Price.
In respect of their redemption, Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities may be linked to shares or depository receipts as well as indices or commodities.

For Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities linked to shares or depository receipts, it may be specified that redemption as at the Maturity Date is made

- for Securities with cash settlement exclusively by payment of a Redemption Amount or
- for Securities with physical delivery by cash settlement or by physical delivery of a certain quantity of the Underlying.

Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities linked to indices or commodities are always issued as Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with cash settlement.

Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities can be issued as non-Quanto or Quanto Securities. Non-Quanto means that the Underlying is traded in the Specified Currency and the Security Holder is therefore not exposed to any exchange rate risk. Quanto means that the Underlying is traded in a currency other than the Specified Currency. However, the exchange rate risk for the Security Holder as at the Maturity Date is excluded.

Interest

Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities bear interest on their Aggregate Nominal Amount or on their Nominal Amount for each Interest Period at the Interest Rate (expressed in each case as a percentage per year):

- Fixed rate Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities bear interest at a fixed interest rate specified in the Final Terms.

- Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with different interest rates for each Interest Period bear interest at the different Interest Rates specified in the Final Terms for the respective Interest Period.

- Floating rate Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities bear interest at an interest rate that corresponds to the offered rate for deposits in the Reference Currency for the Designated Maturity. The Reference Rate is determined on the Screen Page on each Interest Determination Date and specified for the relevant Interest Period. It may be specified that for the calculation of the Interest Rate a Positive Spread is added to or a Negative Spread deducted from the Reference Rate. Alternatively, it may be specified that the Reference Rate is multiplied by a Factor.

A Maximum Interest Rate may be specified for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities. This means that, if the Interest Rate determined for an Interest Period is greater than the Maximum Interest Rate, the Interest Rate for this Interest Period is the Maximum Interest Rate.

A Minimum Interest Rate may also be specified for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities. This means that, if the Interest Rate determined for an Interest Period is lower than the Minimum Interest Rate, the Interest Rate for this Interest Period is the Minimum Interest Rate.

The respective Interest Amount to be paid is calculated by multiplying the product of the Interest Rate and the Aggregate Nominal Amount or the Nominal Amount by the Day Count Fraction. The respective Interest Amount falls due for payment on the relevant Interest Payment Date.

Barrier Event

A Barrier Event means:

- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with continuous Barrier observation that any published price of the Underlying is equal to or lower than the Barrier during the Barrier Observation Period in the case of continuous observation or
- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with date-related Barrier observation that a Reference Price is lower than the Barrier on a Barrier Observation Date.
Redemption

For Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities, redemption as at the Maturity Date upon automatic exercise depends on:

- the occurrence of the Barrier Event and
- the Strike and
- R (final).

The Strike is:

- specified by the Issuer when setting up the Security or
- equal to a specified percentage of R (initial).

R (initial) means:

- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities where R (initial) has already been specified, the Reference Price specified by the Issuer when setting up the Security or
- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with initial Reference Price observation, the Reference Price on the Initial Observation Date or
- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with initial average observation, the equally weighted average of the Reference Prices determined on the Initial Observation Dates or
- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with worst-in observation, the lowest Reference Price during the Worst-in Period.

R (final) means:

- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with final Reference Price observation, the Reference Price on the Final Observation Date or
- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with final average observation, the equally weighted average of the Reference Prices determined on the Final Observation Dates or
- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with best-out observation, the highest Reference Price during the Best-out Period.

If no Barrier Event has occurred, redemption is made for all Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities by payment of the Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount.

If a Barrier Event has occurred, redemption is made:

- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with cash settlement by payment of the Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount multiplied by R (final), divided by the Strike; the Redemption Amount will, however, not be greater than the Nominal Amount; or
- for Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with physical delivery:
  - If R (final) is equal to or greater than the Strike, by payment of a Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount; or
  - If R (final) is lower than the Strike, by delivery of a quantity of the Underlying in a quantity expressed by the Ratio per Security. If the Ratio leads to a non-deliverable fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount of the non-deliverable fraction of the Underlying.

The Securities shall be deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.
Product Type 3: Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities

General

Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities bear interest during the term of the Securities. If no Barrier Event has occurred, redemption is made as at the Maturity Date by payment of a Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount. If a Barrier Event has occurred, redemption depends on the Reference Price. In addition, Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities allow for automatic early redemption at the Early Redemption Amount under certain circumstances (as described below).

In respect of their redemption, Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities may be linked to shares or depository receipts as well as indices or commodities.

For Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities linked to shares or depository receipts, it may be specified that redemption as at the Maturity Date is made

- for Securities with cash settlement, exclusively by payment of a Redemption Amount or
- for Securities with physical delivery, by cash settlement or by physical delivery of a certain quantity of the Underlying.

Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities linked to indices or commodities are always issued as Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with cash settlement.

Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities can be issued as non-Quanto or Quanto Securities. Non-Quanto means that the Underlying is traded in the Specified Currency and the Security Holder is therefore not exposed to any exchange rate risk. Quanto means that the Underlying is traded in a currency other than the Specified Currency. However, the exchange rate risk for the Security Holder as at the Maturity Date is excluded.

Interest

Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities bear interest on their Aggregate Nominal Amount or on their Nominal Amount for each Interest Period at the Interest Rate (expressed in each case as a percentage per year):

- Fixed rate Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities bear interest at a fixed interest rate specified in the Final Terms.
- Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with different interest rates for each Interest Period bear interest at the different Interest Rates specified in the Final Terms for the respective Interest Period.
- Floating rate Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities bear interest at an interest rate that corresponds to the offered rate for deposits in the Reference Currency for the Designated Maturity. The Reference Rate is determined on the Screen Page on each Interest Determination Date and specified for the relevant Interest Period. It may be specified that for the calculation of the Interest Rate a Positive Spread is added to or a Negative Spread deducted from the Reference Rate. Alternatively, it may be specified that the Reference Rate is multiplied by a Factor.

A Maximum Interest Rate may be specified for Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities. This means that, if the Interest Rate determined for an Interest Period is greater than the Maximum Interest Rate, the Interest Rate for this Interest Period is the Maximum Interest Rate.

A Minimum Interest Rate may also be specified for Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities. This means that, if the Interest Rate determined for an Interest Period is lower than the Minimum Interest Rate, the Interest Rate for this Interest Period is the Minimum Interest Rate.
The respective Interest Amount to be paid is calculated by multiplying the product of the Interest Rate and the Aggregate Nominal Amount or the Nominal Amount by the Day Count Fraction. The respective Interest Amount falls due for payment on the relevant Interest Payment Date.

Barrier Event

A Barrier Event means:

- for Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with continuous Barrier observation that any published price of the Underlying is equal to or lower than the Barrier during the Barrier Observation Period in the case of continuous observation or
- for Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with date-related Barrier observation that a Reference Price is lower than the Barrier on a Barrier Observation Date.

Automatic early redemption

If an Early Redemption Event has occurred, the Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities are automatically redeemed early on the immediately following Early Maturity Date (k) by payment of the respective Early Redemption Amount.

If in the case of Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with consideration of a Barrier Event, a Barrier Event has occurred, the option of automatic early redemption lapses and the Express Classic Security is redeemed on the Maturity Date without taking an Early Redemption Event into account.

For Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities without consideration of a Barrier Event, this restriction does not apply.

An Early Redemption Event means that the Reference Price is equal to or greater than the Early Redemption Level (k) on the respective Observation Date (k).

The Early Redemption Amount corresponds to the Nominal Amount.

Redemption as at the Maturity Date

For Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities, redemption as at the Maturity Date upon automatic exercise depends on:

- the occurrence of the Barrier Event and
- the Strike and
- R (final).

The Strike is:

- specified by the Issuer when setting up the Security or
- equal to a specified percentage of R (initial).

R (initial) means:

- for Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities where R (initial) has already been specified, the Reference Price specified by the Issuer when setting up the Security or
- for Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with initial Reference Price observation, the Reference Price on the Initial Observation Date or
- for Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with initial average observation, the equally weighted average of the Reference Prices determined on the Initial Observation Dates or
- for Express Barrier Reverse Convertible Securities with worst-in observation, the lowest Reference Price during the Worst-in Period.

R (final) means:

Product Type 4: Express Classic Securities

Automatic early redemption

If an Early Redemption Event has occurred, the Express Classic Securities are automatically redeemed early on the immediately following Early Maturity Date (k) by payment of the respective Early Redemption Amount.

If no Barrier Event has occurred, redemption is made for all Express Classic Securities at a Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which:

- if no Final Redemption Event has occurred, corresponds to the Final Redemption Amount.

If a Barrier Event has occurred, redemption is made:

- for Express Classic Securities with cash settlement, by payment of the Redemption Amount in the Specified Currency, which corresponds to the Nominal Amount multiplied by R (final), divided by R (initial); the Redemption Amount will, however, not be greater than the Nominal Amount; or

If the Ratio leads to a non-deliverable fraction of the Underlying, a cash amount expressed in the Specified Currency is paid in the amount of the non-deliverable fraction of the Underlying.

The Maximum Amount is specified by the Issuer when setting up the Security.

The Final Redemption Amount is specified by the Issuer when setting up the Security.

The Maximum Amount is specified by the Issuer when setting up the Security.

The Securities shall be deemed automatically exercised on the Exercise Date.

The Security Holders will be informed of such corrections and supplementations pursuant to § 6 of the General Conditions.

Germany

The following is a general discussion of certain German tax consequences of the acquisition, the ownership and the sale, assignment or redemption of Securities. It does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all tax considerations, which may be relevant to a decision to purchase Securities, and, in particular, does not consider any specific facts or circumstances that may apply to a particular purchaser. This summary is based on the laws of Germany currently in force and as applied on the date of this Base Prospectus, which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive or retrospective effect.

With regard to certain types of Securities, neither official statements of the tax authorities nor court decisions exist, and it is not clear how these Securities will be treated. Furthermore, there is often no consistent view in legal literature about the tax treatment of instruments like the Securities, and it is neither intended nor possible to mention all different views in the following section. Where reference is made to statements of the tax authorities, it should be noted that the tax authorities may change their view even with retroactive effect and that the tax courts are not bound by circulars of the tax authorities and, therefore, may take a different view. Even if court decisions exist with regard to certain types of Securities, it is not certain that the same reasoning will apply to the Securities due to certain peculiarities of such Securities. Furthermore, the tax authorities may restrict the application of judgements of tax courts to the individual case with regard to which the judgement was rendered.

Prospective purchasers of Securities are advised to consult their own tax advisors as to the tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership and the sale, assignment or redemption of Securities, including the effect of any state or local taxes, under the tax laws of Germany and each country of which they are residents. Only these advisers will be able to take into account appropriately the details relevant to the taxation of the respective Security Holders.

Tax Residents

Private Investors

Interest and Capital Gains

Interest payable on the Securities to persons holding the Securities as private assets ("Private Investors") who are tax residents of Germany (i.e. persons whose residence or habitual abode is located in Germany) should qualify as investment income (Einkünfte aus Kapitalvermögen) according to Sec. 20 para. 1 German Income Tax Act (Einkommensteuergesetz) and should, in general, be taxed at a separate tax rate of 25 per cent. (Abgeltungsteuer, in the following also referred to as "flat tax") plus 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon and, if applicable, church tax. Capital gains from the sale, assignment or redemption of the Securities, including interest having accrued up to the disposition of a Security and credited separately ("Accrued Interest", Stückzinsen, if any) should qualify – irrespective of any holding period – as investment income pursuant to Sec. 20 para. 2 German Income Tax Act and should also be taxed at the flat tax rate of 25 per cent., plus 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon and, if applicable, church tax. If the Securities are assigned, redeemed, repaid or contributed into a corporation by way of a hidden contribution (verdeckte Einlage in eine Kapitalgesellschaft) rather than sold, as a rule, such transaction is treated like a sale.

Capital gains are determined by taking the difference between the sale, assignment or redemption price (after the deduction of expenses directly and factually related to the sale, assignment or redemption) and the acquisition price of the Securities. Where the Securities are issued in a currency other than Euro the sale, assignment or redemption price and the acquisition costs have to be converted into Euro on the basis of the foreign exchange rates prevailing on the acquisition date and the sale, assignment or redemption date respectively.

If the Securities are settled by delivery of other securities in lieu of payment of a monetary amount due to a delivery right of the Issuer (physical delivery), the consideration for the acquisition of the Security is to take in account as sale price and as well as acquisition costs of the delivered securities. However, a realisation has not yet occurred at such time.

Expenses (other than such expenses directly and factually related to the sale, assignment or redemption) related to interest payments or capital gains under the Securities are – except for a standard lump sum (Sparer-Pauschbetrag) of EUR 801 (EUR 1,602 for married couples filing jointly) – not deductible.

According to the flat tax regime losses from the sale, assignment or redemption of the Securities can only be set-off against other investment income including capital gains. If the set-off is not possible in the assessment period in which the losses have been realised, such losses can be carried forward into future assessment periods only and can be set-off against investment income including capital gains generated in these future assessment periods. Losses from so called private disposal transactions (private Veräußerungsgeschäfte) according to Sec. 23 German Income Tax Act as applicable until 31 December 2008 may be set-off against capital gains under the flat tax regime until 31 December 2013.

Further, the German Federal Ministry of Finance in its decree dated 9 October 2012 (IV C 1 – S 2252/10/10013, hereafter referred to as "Decree") has taken the position that a bad debt loss (Forderungsausfall) and a waiver of a receivable (Forderungsverzicht) shall, in general, not be treated as a sale, so that losses suffered upon such bad debt loss or waiver shall not be deductible for tax purposes. This position is subject to controversial discussions among tax experts. In this respect, it is not clear whether the position of the tax authorities may affect securities (Wertpapiere) which are linked to a reference value in case such value decreases.

Furthermore, restrictions with respect to the claiming of losses may also apply if certain types of Securities would have to be qualified as derivative transactions and expire worthless. Moreover, according to the Decree the German Federal Ministry of Finance holds the view that a disposal (Veräußerung) (and, as a consequence, a tax loss resulting from such disposal) shall not be recognized if the sales price does not exceed the actual transaction cost.

Withholding

If the Securities are held in a custody with or administrated by a German credit institution, financial services institution (including a German permanent establishment of such foreign institution), securities trading company or securities trading bank (the "Disbursing Agent"), the flat tax at a rate of 25 per cent. (plus 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon and, if applicable, church tax) will be withheld by the Disbursing Agent on interest payments and the excess of the proceeds from the sale, assignment or redemption (after the deduction of expenses incurred directly and factually in connection with the sale, assignment or redemption) over the acquisition cost for the Securities (if applicable converted into Euro terms on the basis of the foreign exchange rates as of the acquisition date and the sale, assignment or redemption date respectively). The Disbursing Agent will provide for the set-off of losses with current investment income including capital gains from other securities. If, in the absence of sufficient current investment income derived through the same Disbursing Agent, a set-off is not possible, the Security Holder may – instead of having a loss carried forward into the following year – file an application with the Disbursing Agent until 15 December of the current fiscal year for a certification of losses in order to set-off such losses with investment income derived through other institutions in the holder's personal income tax return. If custody has changed since the acquisition and the acquisition data is not proved as required by Sec. 43a para. 2 German Income Tax Act or not relevant, the flat tax rate of 25 per cent. (plus 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon and, if applicable, church tax) will be imposed on an amount equal to 30 per cent. of the proceeds from the sale, assignment or redemption of the Securities. In the course of the tax withholding provided for by the Disbursing Agent foreign taxes may be credited in accordance with the German Income Tax Act. Taxes withheld on the basis of the EU Savings Directive (for further details see below "EU Savings Directive") may be credited in the course of the tax assessment procedure.

The Issuer is, in general, not obliged to levy German withholding tax in respect of payment on the Securities. If, however, the Securities qualify as hybrid instruments (e. g. silent partnership, profit participating notes, jouissance rights (Genussrechte)), German withholding tax has to be imposed by the Issuer irrespective of whether or not the Securities are held in a custodial account maintained with a Disbursing Agent.

In general, no flat tax will be levied if the Security Holder filed a withholding exemption certificate (Freistellungsauftrag) with the Disbursing Agent (in the maximum amount of the standard lump sum of EUR 801 (EUR 1,602 for married couples filing jointly)) to the extent the income does not exceed the maximum exemption amount shown on the withholding exemption certificate. Similarly, no flat tax will be deducted if the Security Holder has submitted to the Disbursing Agent a valid certificate of non-assessment (Nichtveranlagungsbescheinigung) issued by the competent local tax office. For Private Investors the withheld flat tax is, in general, definitive. Exceptions apply, if and to the extent the actual investment income exceeds the amount which was determined as the basis for the withholding of the flat tax by the Disbursing Agent. In such case, the exceeding amount of investment income must be included in the Private Investor’s income tax return and will be subject to the flat tax in the course of the assessment procedure. According to the Decree of the German Federal Ministry of Finance, however, any exceeding amount of not more than EUR 500 per assessment period will not be claimed on grounds of equity, provided that no other reasons for an assessment according to Sec. 32d para. 3 German Income Tax Act exist. Further, Private Investors may request that their total investment income, together with their other income, be subject to taxation at their personal, progressive tax rate rather than the flat tax rate, if this results in a lower tax liability. In order to prove such investment income and the withheld flat tax thereon the investor may request a respective certificate in officially required form from the Disbursing Agent.

Investment income not subject to the withholding of the flat tax (e.g. since there is no Disbursing Agent) must be included into the personal income tax return and will be subject to the flat tax rate of 25 per cent. (plus 5.5 per cent. solidarity surcharge thereon and, if applicable, church tax), unless the investor requests the investment income to be subject to taxation at lower personal, progressive income tax rate. In the course of the assessment procedure withholding tax in accordance with the German Interest Information Regulation (Zinsinformationsverordnung) levied on the basis of the EU Savings Directive (for further details see below "EU Savings Directive") and foreign taxes on investment income may be credited to the income tax in accordance with the German Income Tax Act.
Business Investors

Interest payable under the Securities to persons holding the Securities as business assets ("Business Investors") who are tax residents of Germany (i.e. Business Investors whose residence, habitual abode, statutory seat or place of effective management and control is located in Germany) and capital gains, including Accrued Interest, if any, from the sale, assignment or redemption of the Securities are subject to income tax at the applicable personal, progressive income tax rate or, in case of corporate entities, to corporate income tax at a uniform 15 per cent. tax rate (in each case plus solidarity surcharge at a rate of 5.5 per cent. on the tax payable; and in case where payments of interest on the Securities to Business Investors are subject to income tax plus church tax, if applicable). Such interest payments and capital gains may also be subject to trade tax if the Securities form part of the property of a German trade or business. Losses from the sale, assignment or redemption of the Securities are generally recognized for tax purposes; this may be different if certain (e.g. index linked) Securities would have to be qualified as derivative transactions.

Domestic withholding tax, if any, including solidarity surcharge thereon is credited as a prepayment against the Business Investor's corporate or personal, progressive income tax liability and the solidarity surcharge in the course of the tax assessment procedure, i.e. the withholding tax is not definitive. Any potential surplus will be refunded. However, in general and subject to further requirements no withholding deduction will apply on capital gains from the sale, assignment or redemption of the Securities and certain other income if (i) the Securities are held by a corporation, association or estate in terms of Sec. 43 para. 2 sentence 3 no. 1 German Income Tax Act or (ii) the proceeds from the Securities qualify as income of a domestic business and the investor notifies this to the Disbursing Agent by use of the required official form according to Sec. 43 para. 2 sentence 3 no. 2 German Income Tax Act (Erklärung zur Freistellung vom Kapitalertragsteuerabzug).

Withholding tax levied on the basis of the EU Savings Directive (for further details see below "EU Savings Directive") may be credited in accordance with the German Interest Information Regulation and foreign taxes may be credited in accordance with the German Income Tax Act. Alternatively, foreign taxes may also be deducted from the tax base for German income tax purposes.

Non-residents

Interest payable on the Securities and capital gains, including Accrued Interest, if any, are not subject to German taxation, unless (i) the Securities form part of the business property of a permanent establishment, including a permanent representative, or a fixed base maintained in Germany by the Security Holder; or (ii) the interest income otherwise constitutes German-source income or (iii) certain formal requirements are not fulfilled. In the cases (i), (ii) and (iii) a tax regime similar to that explained above under "Tax Residents" applies.

Non-residents of Germany are, subject to certain exceptions, exempt from German capital gains tax on interest and the solidarity surcharge (withholding tax and flat tax, respectively) thereon, even if the Securities are held in custody with a Disbursing Agent. However, where the investment income is subject to German taxation as set forth in the preceding paragraph and Securities are held in a custodial account with a Disbursing Agent withholding flat tax is levied as explained above under "Tax Residents".

The withholding tax may be refunded based upon an applicable tax treaty or German national tax law.
Inheritance and Gift Tax

No inheritance or gift taxes with respect to any Security will arise under the laws of Germany, if, in the case of inheritance tax, neither the decedent nor the beneficiary, or, in the case of gift tax, neither the donor nor the donee, is a resident of Germany and such Security is not attributable to a German trade or business for which a permanent establishment is maintained, or a permanent representative has been appointed, in Germany. Exceptions from this rule apply to certain German expatriates.

Other Taxes

No stamp, issue, registration or similar taxes or duties will be payable in Germany in connection with the issuance, delivery, execution or conversion of the Securities. Currently, net assets tax is not levied in Germany.

German implementation of the EU Directive on the Taxation of Savings Income

Germany has implemented the EU Council Directive 2003/48/EC (for further details, see below "EU Savings Directive") into national legislation by means of an Interest Information Regulation (Zinsinformationsverordnung) in 2004. Starting on 1 July 2005, Germany has therefore begun to communicate all payments of interest on the Securities and similar income with respect to Securities to the beneficial owners Member State of residence if the Securities have been kept in a custodial account with a Disbursing Agent.

Czech Republic

The following is a brief summary of certain tax consequences in the Czech Republic for investors in connection with the Securities. It does not claim to fully describe all Czech tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, disposition or redemption of the Securities. In some cases a different tax regime may apply. Further, this summary does not take into account or discuss the tax laws of any country other than the Czech Republic nor does it take into account the investors' individual circumstances. Prospective investors are advised to consult tax advisors to obtain further information about the tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, disposition, redemption, exercise or settlement of the Securities and receiving payments of interest, principal and/or other amounts under the Securities. Only tax advisors are in a position to adequately take into account special tax aspects of the particular Securities in question as well as the investor's personal circumstances and any special tax treatment applicable to the investor. Tax risks resulting from the Securities (in particular from a potential qualification of the Securities as equity instruments) shall in any case be borne by the investors.

This summary is based on Czech law as in force as of the day of this Prospectus. The laws and their interpretation by the tax authorities may change and such changes may also have retroactive effect. With regard to certain financial instruments there is currently neither case law nor guidance of the tax authorities as to the tax treatment of such financial instruments. Accordingly, it cannot be ruled out that the Czech tax authorities or the Czech courts adopt a view different from that outlined below.

Taxation of Czech tax residents

An individual who is for tax purposes treated as a resident of the Czech Republic or a person (other than an individual), pension fund and unit trust who is for tax purposes treated as a resident of the Czech Republic or organisational unit of the Czech state ("Czech Security Holder") is subject to income taxation (personal income tax or corporate income tax, as the case may be) on its worldwide income, regardless of source of the income, including interest from debt (such as the Securities), Redemption Amounts, capital gains or other income (realised on the Securities).

The taxable income from the Security is taxed at a flat Czech income tax rate of 15% for individuals, at a flat Czech income tax rate of 19% for general corporate entities and at a flat Czech income tax rate of 5% for investment and pension funds and unit trusts. Certain exemptions may apply.

Such tax is payable on a self-assessment basis (in the case of Czech Security Holders who are individuals, the reporting obligation, in addition to whether the interest income shall be declared on a cash or an accrual basis, will depend on the individual's circumstances in each case). Czech Security Holders that are subject to Czech accounting standards for entrepreneurs (most companies other than financial or insurance institutions and certain individuals engaged in active business) or to Czech accounting standards for financial institutions (including, in particular, banks) will be required to recognize the interest income on an accrual basis for accounting purposes and, accordingly, include it in their general tax base for Czech income tax purposes in the given period. Interest and similar income of pension funds from certain debt instruments (e.g. from bonds or deposit Securities) is not subject to the Czech corporate income tax.

Czech Security Holders who are subject to Czech accounting standards for entrepreneurs or to Czech accounting standards for financial institutions and hold the Securities for the purposes of trading may be, under certain conditions, required to revalue the Securities to fair value for accounting purposes, whereby the unrealised gains or losses would be accounted for as revenues or expenses, respectively. Such revenues are generally taxable and the corresponding expenses are generally tax deductible for Czech tax purposes.

Any gains upon a sale or a redemption of the Securities will generally be taxable at the above mentioned rates and in the case of Czech Security Holders who keep accounting books (in principle, all legal entities and certain individuals), any losses will generally be tax deductible. By contrast, a loss realised by Czech Security Holders who are individuals (other than those mentioned in the preceding sentence) is generally non-deductible; in the case of sale such losses can generally be compensated by taxable gains on sales of other similar securities provided that the income from the sale of these securities is not exempt from tax.

In the case of Czech Security Holders who are individuals, any gain derived from the sale of the Securities is exempt from Czech personal income tax if:

- the individual did not hold a share in the Issuer's registered capital or voting rights exceeding 5% in the 24-month period prior to the sale of the Securities;
- holding period of the Securities exceeds six months; and
- the Securities have not been held in connection with the business activities of the Czech Security Holders or, if so, the Securities will be sold after six months following the termination of such business activities at the earliest.

If any of the above conditions is not fulfilled, any gain derived by a Czech Security Holder who is individual from the sale (but not a redemption) of the Securities will be exempt, if the holding period of the Securities exceeds five years.
The tax base is calculated in Czech Crowns. For the purposes of calculating the tax base, the income denominated in different currency is translated to the Czech Crowns using the exchange rate determined pursuant to the Czech tax law.

Taxation of Czech tax non-residents

Income realised by an individual who is not for tax purposes treated as a resident of the Czech Republic or by a person (other than an individual) who is not for tax purposes treated as a resident of the Czech Republic ("Non-Czech Security Holder"), from the sale of the Securities to a Czech Security Holder or to a Non-Czech Security Holder acquiring the Securities through a permanent establishment in the Czech Republic, will be subject to taxation in the Czech Republic, unless:

- the Non-Czech Security Holder realising that income is a tax resident in a country within the meaning of a double taxation treaty concluded between that country and the Czech Republic, pursuant to the terms of which the right to tax that income is conferred exclusively to that country (such as the double taxation treaty between the Czech Republic and Germany), is the beneficial owner of that income, is entitled to enjoy the benefits of that double taxation treaty and does not have a permanent establishment in the Czech Republic to which the income would be attributable; or

- the Non-Czech Security Holder who is an individual and did not hold a share in the Issuer's registered capital or voting rights exceeding 5% in the 24-month period prior to the sale of the securities and has held the securities for more than six months prior to their sale and the securities have not been held in connection with business activities of the Non-Czech Security Holder and if so, the securities will be sold after six months following the termination of such business activities at the earliest.

If income realised by a Non-Czech Security Holder, whether holding the Securities through a permanent establishment in the Czech Republic or not, from the sale of the Securities is subject to taxation in the Czech Republic (as discussed in the foregoing paragraphs), the Czech Security Holder or a permanent establishment in the Czech Republic of a Non-Czech Security Holder paying the income will be obliged to withhold an amount of 1% on a gross basis representing tax security, unless the Non-Czech Security Holder selling the Securities is for tax purposes a resident of a member state of the European Union or the European Economic Area or unless the obligation to withhold is waived based on a tax authority decision. The tax security shall be credited against the final tax liability of the Non-Czech Security Holder selling the Securities. The final tax is payable on a self-assessment basis and is calculated at the aforementioned flat Czech income tax rates (i.e., 15% for individuals, 19% for general corporate entities and 5% for foreign qualified investment funds established within the European Union or in Norway and Iceland).

The tax base is calculated in Czech Crowns. For the purposes of calculating the tax base, the income denominated in different currency is translated to the Czech Crowns using the exchange rate determined pursuant to the Czech tax law.

Withholding tax on interest

Assuming that the Issuer is not a Czech tax resident and does not have a permanent establishment in the Czech Republic, all interest as well as any other payments to be made under Securities may be made free of withholding or deduction of, for or on the account of any taxes of whatsoever nature imposed, levied, withheld or assessed by the Czech Republic or any political subdivision or taxing authority thereof or therein.
Other taxes or duties

No registration tax, capital tax, customs duty, transfer tax, stamp duty or any other similar tax or duty is payable in the Czech Republic by a Non-Czech Security Holder or a Czech Security Holder in respect of or in connection with the purchase, holding or disposition of the Securities, save for disposition in certain cases upon donation or inheritance.

Also, if the Non-Czech Security Holder individual residing in an EU member state other than the Czech Republic receives an interest as well as similar in kind payment paid-out, credited or remitted to it by a Czech paying agent (agent within the meaning of the EU Savings Directive (Council Directive 2003/48/EC) as implemented into the Czech tax law appointed by the Issuer in the Czech Republic), the paying agent will be obliged to report to its local tax authority the identity of the Non-Czech Security Holder individual as the beneficial owner of this income, unless the Non-Czech Security Holder individual proves to the Czech paying agent that it is a tax resident in a country outside the EU. For this purpose, the recipient of the payment is deemed to be the beneficial owner unless it proves otherwise to the Czech paying agent. The Czech paying agent will also be obliged to report the payments made to a non-Czech EU entity on behalf of the Non-Czech Security Holder individual.

EU Savings Directive

Under the EC Council Directive 2003/48/EC on the taxation of savings income (the "EU Savings Directive"), each Member State is required, to provide to the tax authorities of another Member State details of payments of interest or other similar income paid by a person within its jurisdiction to, or collected by such a person for, an individual resident in that other Member State; however, for a transitional period, Austria and Luxembourg will (unless during such period they elect otherwise) instead operate a information reporting system whereby if a beneficial owner, within the meaning of the EU Savings Directive does not comply with one of two procedures for information reporting, the relevant Member State will levy a withholding tax on payments to such beneficial owner. The withholding tax system applies for a transitional period during which the withholding tax rate has raised over time to 35 per cent. The transitional period is to terminate at the end of the first full fiscal year following the agreement by certain non-EU countries to the exchange of information relating to such payments.

Also, a number of non-EU countries, including Switzerland, and certain dependent or associated territories of certain Member States have adopted similar measures (either provision of information or transitional withholding) in relation to payments made by a person within their jurisdiction to, or collected by such a person for, an individual resident in a Member State. In addition, the Member States have entered into reciprocal provision of information or transitional withholding arrangements with certain of those dependent or associated territories in relation to payments made by a person in a Member State to, or collected by such a person for, an individual resident in one of those territories.

On 15 September 2008, the European Commission issued a report to the Council of the European Union on the operation of the EU Savings Directive, which included the Commission's advice on the need for changes to the EU Savings Directive. On 13 November 2008, the European Commission published a more detailed proposal for amendments to the EU Savings Directive (COM (2008) 727), which included a number of suggested changes. The European Parliament approved an amended version of this proposal on 24 April 2009. If any of those proposed changes are made in relation to the EU Savings Directive, they may amend or broaden the scope of the requirements described above. Investors who are in any doubt as to their position should consult their professional advisers.
France

The following is a general description of certain French withholding tax consequences relating to the Securities. It does not purport to be a description of general French tax considerations relating to the Securities. Prospective investors are advised to consult their own professional advisors to obtain information about the tax consequences of the acquisition, ownership, disposition or redemption of the Securities. Only personal advisors are in a position to adequately take into account special tax aspects of the particular Securities in question as well as the investor's personal circumstances and any special tax treatment applicable to the investor. This summary is based on French law as in force as of the date of this Base Prospectus. The laws and their interpretation by the tax authorities may change and such changes may have retroactive effect.

Withholding tax

Income paid or accrued on the Securities, to the extent such Securities are not issued by an Issuer incorporated in France or otherwise acting through a French permanent establishment, is not, in principle, mandatorily subject to withholding tax in France.

However, according to articles 125 A and 125 D of the French Tax Code ("FTC"), French resident taxpayers receiving interest on debt instruments from France or from abroad, such as the Securities, are subject to a non-definitive withholding tax ("prélèvement à la source obligatoire non libératoire de l'impôt sur le revenu") at the rate of 24% (plus social contributions at the aggregate rate of 15.5%). The 24% levy is a prepayment of income tax; it is credited against the individual income tax due and is reimbursed if it exceeds the individual income tax due. If the paying agent of the interest is located in France, such paying agent must file the related tax return and perform the payment of the levy (article 125 A, I of the FTC). If the paying agent is not located in France, the filing and the payment of the levy is to be made by the beneficial owner of the interest. In the case the paying agent is located in a European Union Member State, Iceland, Norway or Liechtenstein, the filing and the payment of the levy may be performed by the paying agent located in such State on demand of the beneficial owner (article 125 D, IV of the FTC).

Other tax considerations

Concerning prospective purchasers of Securities who are French resident for tax purposes or who would hold Securities through a permanent establishment or a fixed base in France, please note that transactions involving the Securities, including any purchase or disposal of, or other dealings in the Securities and any transaction involved in the exercise and settlement of the Securities, may have French tax consequences.

The tax consequences regarding notably interest, premium on redemption and capital gains, as the case may be, may depend, amongst other things, upon the status of the prospective purchaser (i.e. legal entities or individuals) and on the specific terms and conditions of the relevant Securities.

Savings Directive

The Savings Directive has been implemented into French law under article 242 ter of the FTC and articles 49 I ter to 49 I sexies of Annex III to the FTC, which imposes on paying agents based in France an obligation to report to the French tax authorities certain information with respect to interest payments made to beneficial owners domiciled in another Member State, including, among other things, the identity and address of the beneficial owner and a detailed list of the different categories of interest paid to that beneficial owner.
Ireland

The following is a summary of the Irish withholding tax treatment of the Securities. It is based on the laws and practice of the Revenue Commissioners currently in force in Ireland as at the date of this Base Prospectus and may be subject to change. The summary does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all of the Irish tax considerations that may be relevant to a decision to purchase, own or dispose of the Securities. The summary does not constitute tax or legal advice and the comments below are of a general nature only and it does not discuss all aspects of Irish taxation that may be relevant to any particular holder of Securities. Prospective investors in the Securities should consult their professional advisers on the tax implications of the purchase, holding, redemption or sale of the Securities and the receipt of payments thereon under any laws applicable to them.

Irish Withholding Tax

Irish withholding tax applies to certain payments including payments of:

- Irish source yearly interest (yearly interest is interest that is capable of arising for a period in excess of one year);
- Irish source annual payments (annual payments are payments that are capable of being made for a period in excess of one year and are pure income-profit in the hands of the recipient); and Distributions (including interest that is treated as a distribution under Irish law) made by companies that are resident in Ireland for the purposes of Irish tax;
- at the standard rate of income tax (currently 20 per cent).

On the basis that the Issuer is not resident in Ireland for the purposes of Irish tax, nor does the Issuer operate in Ireland through a branch or agency with which the issue of the Securities is connected, nor are the Securities held in Ireland through a depository or otherwise located in Ireland, then to the extent that payments of interest or annual payments arise on the Securities, such payments should not be regarded as payments having an Irish source for the purposes of Irish taxation.

Accordingly, the Issuer or any paying agent acting on behalf of the Issuer should not be obliged to deduct any amount on account of these Irish withholding taxes from payments made in connection with the Securities.

Separately, for as long as the Securities are quoted on a stock exchange, a purchaser of the Securities should not be obliged to deduct any amount on account of Irish tax from a payment made by it in connection with the purchase of the Securities.

Irish Encashment Tax

Payments on any Securities paid by a paying agent in Ireland or collected or realised by an agent in Ireland acting on behalf of the beneficial owner of Securities will be subject to Irish encashment tax at the standard rate of Irish tax (currently 20 per cent), unless it is proved, on a claim made in the required manner to the Revenue Commissioners of Ireland, that the beneficial owner of the Securities entitled to the interest or distribution is not resident in Ireland for the purposes of Irish tax and such interest or distribution is not deemed, under the provisions of Irish tax legislation, to be income of another person that is resident in Ireland.

Italian Republic

This section contains a brief summary on tax implications related to the Securities for Italian tax laws purposes. This summary does not purport to exhaustively describe all possible tax aspects and does not deal with specific situations which may be of relevance for individual potential investors. It is based on the currently valid Italian tax legislation, case law and regulations of the tax authorities, as well as their respective interpretation, all of which may be amended from time to time. Such amendments may also be effected with retroactive effect and may negatively impact on the tax consequences described below. Potential purchasers of the Securities should consult with their legal and tax advisors to check tax implications of their possible investment in the Securities.

This section does not constitute a tax advice and does not purport to be a comprehensive description of all the tax considerations which may be relevant to a decision to subscribe for, purchase, own or dispose of the Securities and does not purport to deal with the tax consequences applicable to all categories of investors, some of which may be subject to special rules.

Prospective purchasers of the Securities are advised to consult their own tax advisers to check tax implications of their possible investment in the Securities.

The following summary is rendered based upon the laws in force in Italy as of the date of this Base Prospectus.

Tax Treatment of the Securities

Interest and other proceeds - Securities that qualify as "obbligazioni o titoli simili alle obbligazioni" (bonds)

For income tax purposes, debentures similar to bonds are defined as securities that incorporate an unconditional obligation to pay, at maturity, an amount not less than their nominal value (i.e., the issuer is legally obliged to reimburse the principal amount to the bond holder) and that do not give any right to directly or indirectly participate in the management of the relevant issuer or of the business in relation to which they are issued. Pursuant to Legislative Decree No. 239 of April 1, 1996 ("Decree No. 239"), as amended and restated, and pursuant to Art. 44 paragraph 2(c) of Presidential Decree No. 917 of December 22, 1986 ("Decree No. 917"), as amended and restated by Legislative Decree No. 344 of December 12, 2003, in general, interest and other proceeds (including the difference between the redemption amount and the issue price) in respect of securities that qualify as bonds or debentures similar to bonds and that are issued by a non-Italian resident issuer may be subject to final Italian substitutive tax if owed to beneficial owners resident in Italy for tax purposes, depending on the legal status of the beneficial owners.

Italian Resident Security Holders Applicability of Substitutive Tax

In particular, pursuant to Decree No. 239, as amended and restated, payments of interest and other proceeds in respect of securities that qualify as "bonds" to Italian resident beneficial owners (either when interest and other proceeds are paid or when payment thereof is obtained by a beneficial owner on a transfer of Securities) will be subject to final substitutive tax at a rate of 20.0% in Italy if made to Italian resident beneficial owners that are: (i) private individuals holding Securities not in connection with an entrepreneurial activity (unless they have entrusted the management of their financial assets, including the Securities, to an Italian authorised financial intermediary and have opted for the Risparmio Gestito regime ("Asset Management" regime) provided for by Article 7 of Legislative Decree No. 461 of November 21, 1997 ("Decree No. 461"); (ii) Italian resident non-commercial partnerships; (iii) public and private entities, other than companies, not carrying out commercial activities as their exclusive or principal activity; (iv) entities exempt from corporate income tax.

In case the Securities are held by an individual or by an entity indicated above under (iii), in either case in connection with an entrepreneurial activity, interest and other proceeds relating to the Securities will be subject to a substitutive tax and will be included in the relevant beneficial owner's income tax return. As a consequence, the interest and other proceeds will be subject to the ordinary income tax and the substitutive tax may be recovered as a deduction from the income tax due. The 20.0% substitutive tax will be applied by the Italian resident qualified financial intermediaries as defined by Italian law that will intervene, in any way, in the collection of interest and other proceeds on the Securities or in the transfer of the Securities.

If interest and other proceeds on the Securities are not collected through an Italian resident qualified intermediary as defined by Italian law and as such no substitutive tax is levied, the Italian resident beneficial owners listed above under (i) to (iv) will be required to include interest and other proceeds in their yearly income tax return and subject them to final substitute tax at a rate of 20.0%, unless an option is allowed and made for a different regime.

Italian Resident Security Holders Substitutive tax Not Applicable

Pursuant to Decree No. 239, as amended and restated, payments of interest and other proceeds in respect of Securities that qualify as 'bonds' to Italian resident beneficial owners will not be subject to the substitutive tax at the rate of 20.0% if made to beneficial owners that are: (i) Italian resident individuals holding Securities not in connection with entrepreneurial activity who have entrusted the management of their financial assets, including the Securities, to an Italian authorised financial intermediary and have opted for the 'Asset Management' regime; (ii) Italian resident collective investment funds and SICAVs and pension funds referred to in Legislative Decree No. 124 of April 21, 1993; (iii) Italian resident real estate investment funds; (iv) Italian resident corporations or permanent establishments in the Republic of Italy of non-resident corporations to which the Securities are effectively connected; (v) Italian resident partnerships carrying out a commercial activity; or
(vi) public and private entities, other than companies, carrying out commercial activities and holding Securities in connection with the same commercial activities.

If the Securities are part of an investment portfolio managed on a discretionary basis by an Italian authorised intermediary and the beneficial owner of the Securities has opted for the 'Asset Management' regime (as defined below), annual substitute tax at a rate of 20.0% (the "Asset Management Tax") applies on the increase in value of the managed assets accrued, even if not realised, at the end of each tax year (which increase includes interest and other proceeds accrued on Securities). The Asset Management Tax is applied on behalf of the taxpayer by the managing authorised intermediary.

Interest and other proceeds accrued on the Securities held by Italian resident corporations, commercial partnerships, individual entrepreneurs holding the Securities in connection with entrepreneurial activities or permanent establishments in Italy of non-resident corporations to which the Securities are effectively connected, are included in the taxable base for the purposes of: (i) corporate income tax (*imposta sul reddito delle società, "IRES") at 27.5% or (ii) individual income tax (*imposta sul reddito delle persone fisiche, "IRPEF"), at progressive rates, plus local surcharges, if applicable; under certain circumstances, such interest is included in the taxable basis of the regional tax on productive activities (imposta regionale sulle attività produttive, "IRAP"), at a general rate of 3.9% (regions may vary the rate up to 0.92%).

Italian resident collective investment funds and SICAVs are not subject to tax on interest and other proceeds.

In particular, pursuant to Article 73, paragraph 5-quinquies, of Decree No. 917, as amended and restated by Legislative Decree No. 225, of December 29, 2010, Italian resident collective investment funds and SICAVs are not subject to:

- withholding tax on interest and other proceeds from bank accounts, as provided for by Article 26, paragraph 2 of Presidential Decree No. 600, of September 29, 1973 ("Decree No. 600");
- withholding tax on interest and other proceeds from foreign bank accounts and depository receipts, issued by non-residents, as provided for by Article 26, paragraph 3, of Decree 600;
- withholding tax on proceeds from repurchase agreements and securities lending, as provided for by Article 26, paragraph 3-bis, of Decree 600;
- withholding tax on capital incomes, different from those provided for by Article 26, Paragraphs 1 to 4, of Decree 600, and those subject to other withholding tax or substitutive tax, pursuant to Article 26, paragraph 5, of Decree 600;
- withholding tax on capital incomes accrued on shares held by Italian and Luxembourg collective investment funds, as provided for by Article 26-quinquies, of Decree 600;
- withholding tax on proceeds accrued on shares of foreign collective investment funds, pursuant to Article 10-ter of Law No. 77, of March 23, 1983.

Moreover, Italian resident collective investment funds and SICAVs are not subject to:

- substitutive tax on interest and other proceeds accrued on private and public securities issued by banks and listed companies (s.c. “large issuers”), as provided for by Article 2, paragraph 1, of Decree No. 239;
- withholding tax on profits paid out to partners of companies and other entities, resident or not, pursuant to Article 27 of Decree 600;
- substitutive tax on incomes from shares and other financial instruments managed by the Monte Titoli S.p.A datawarehouse, as provided for by Article 27-ter of Decree 600;
- withholding tax on proceeds, pursuant to Article 44 of Decree 917, accrued on shares of real estate collective investment funds, as provided for by Article 6, paragraph 1, of Law Decree No. 351, of September 25, 2001;
- withholding tax on profits paid out by real estate investment companies, listed or not, as provided for by Article 1, paragraph 134 of the Law No. 296, of December 27, 2006.

Otherwise, failing a specific exception to the generally relevant source based taxation system, Italian resident collective investment funds and SICAVs are subject to:
- withholding tax on interest and other proceeds accrued on securities and similar bonds issued by subjects other than s.c. “large issuers”, as provided for by Article 26, paragraph 1 of Decree 600;
- withholding tax on proceeds on banker's acceptance, pursuant to Article 1 of Law Decree No. 546, October 2, 1981;
- withholding tax on proceeds on finance bills, as provided for by Article 26, paragraph 1, of Decree 600;
- withholding tax on proceeds accrued on atypical securities, pursuant to Articles 5 and 8 of Law Decree No. 512, September 30, 1983.

Starting from 1 January 2001, Italian resident pension funds are subject to an 11% annual substitutive tax (the "Pension Fund Tax") in relation to the increase in value of the managed assets accrued at the end of each tax year.

Any positive difference between the nominal amount of the Securities and their issue price is deemed to be interest for tax purposes. To ensure payment of interest and other proceeds in respect of the Securities without application of the substitutive tax, where allowed, investors indicated here above under (i) to (vi) must be the beneficial owners of payments of interest and other proceeds on the Securities and timely deposit the Securities, together with the coupons relating to such Securities, directly or indirectly, with an Italian authorised financial intermediary as defined by Italian law.

Non-Italian Resident Security Holders

Interest and other proceeds paid on Securities by the non-Italian resident Issuer to a beneficial owner who is not resident in Italy for tax purposes, without a permanent establishment in Italy to which the Securities are effectively connected, should not be subject to any Italian taxation. If the Securities are deposited with an Italian bank or other resident intermediary or are sold through an Italian bank or other resident intermediary or in any case an Italian resident intermediary as defined by Italian law intervenes in the payment of interest and other proceeds on the Securities, to ensure payment of interest and other proceeds without application of Italian taxation a non-Italian resident Security Holder may be required to produce to the Italian bank or other intermediary as defined by Italian law a self-declaration certifying to be the beneficial owner of payments of interest and other proceeds on the Securities and not to be resident in Italy for tax purposes.

Tax treatment of Securities that do not qualify as bonds

The following applies to Securities containing a derivative agreement (or similar mechanism) in the relevant terms and conditions.

Securities that (a) do not qualify as bonds (‘obbligazioni’) or debentures similar to bonds (‘titoli similari alle obbligazioni’) pursuant to Art. 44 of the TUIR, but (b) qualify as Redditi diversi (sundry income) pursuant to Article 67 of Decree No. 917 may fall under the joint provisions of Article 67 Decree No. 917 and Article 5 of Decree No. 461, and further amendments thereof, according to which, proceeds and capital gains, not obtained within the exercise of entrepreneurial activities, realised by persons resident in Italy and individuals equivalent to residents as defined in the Decree No. 461, arising out of both the exercise and the sale for money consideration of the Securities are subject to the substitutive tax of 20.0%. Charges and capital losses arising out of the exercise and the sale of the Securities are deductible in accordance with the modalities indicated below; premiums paid on the Securities contribute to create the income of the financial year in which the Securities are exercised or alienated.

Capital Gains Tax

Any capital gains realised upon the sale for consideration or redemption of the Securities will be treated for the purpose of corporate income tax and of individual income tax as part of the taxable business income of Security Holders (and, in certain cases, depending on the status of the Security Holders, may also be included in taxable basis of IRAP), and it will, therefore, be subject to tax in Italy according to the relevant tax provisions, if realised by Security Holders that are:

(a) Italian resident corporations;

(b) Italian resident commercial partnerships;

(c) permanent establishments in Italy of foreign corporations to which the Securities are effectively connected; or

(d) Italian resident individuals carrying out a commercial activity, as to any capital gains realised within the scope of the commercial activity carried out.

Pursuant to Decree No. 461, any capital gains realised by Italian resident individuals holding Securities not in connection with entrepreneurial activity and certain other persons upon the sale for consideration or redemption of the Securities would be subject to an "substitutive tax" at the current rate of 20.0%. Under the tax declaration regime, which is the standard regime for taxation of capital gains realised by Italian resident individuals not engaged in entrepreneurial activity, the "substitutive tax" on capital gains will be chargeable, on a cumulative basis, on all capital gains, net of any incurred capital loss. These individuals must report overall capital gains realised in any tax year, net of any relevant incurred capital loss, in the annual tax declaration to be filed with the Italian tax authorities for such year and pay the "substitutive tax" on such gains together with any balance on income tax due for such year. Capital losses in excess of capital gains may be carried forward against capital gains realised in any of the four succeeding tax years. Capital losses realised before 1 January 2012 may be carried forward to be offset against subsequent capital gains of the same nature for an overall amount of 62.5% of the relevant capital losses.

As an alternative to the tax declaration regime, Italian resident individual Security Holders not in connection with entrepreneurial activity may elect to pay the "substitutive tax" separately on capital gains realised on each sale or redemption of the Securities (the "Risparmio Amministrato" regime or "Managed Portfolio" regime). Such separate taxation of capital gains is allowed subject to: (i) the Securities being deposited with Italian banks, società di intermediazione mobiliare (SIM) or certain authorised financial intermediaries; and (ii) an express election for the Managed Portfolio regime being made promptly in writing by the relevant Security Holder. The financial intermediary, on the basis of the information provided by the taxpayer, accounts for the "substitutive tax" in respect of capital gains realised on each sale or redemption of Securities (as well as in respect of capital gains realised at the revocation of its mandate), net of any incurred capital loss, and is required to pay the relevant amount to the Italian tax authorities on behalf of the taxpayer, deducting a corresponding amount from proceeds to be credited to the Security Holder. Under the Managed Portfolio regime, where a sale or redemption of Securities results in capital loss, such loss may be deducted from capital gains subsequently realised in the same tax year or in the following tax years up to the fourth year. Under the Managed Portfolio regime, the Security Holder is not required to declare capital gains in its annual tax declaration and remains anonymous. Capital losses realised before 1 January 2012 may be carried forward to be offset against subsequent capital gains of the same nature for an overall amount of 62.5% of the relevant capital losses.

Any capital gains realised by Italian resident individuals holding Securities not in connection with entrepreneurial activity who have elected for the Asset Management regime will be included in the computation of the annual increase in value of the managed assets accrued, even if not realised, at year end, subject to the substitutive tax at the current rate of 20.0% to be applied on behalf of the taxpayer by the managing authorised intermediary. Under the Asset Management regime, any depreciation of the managed assets accrued at year end may be carried forward against any increase in value of the managed assets accrued in any of the four succeeding tax years. Under the Asset Management regime, the Security Holder is not required to report capital gains realised in its annual tax declaration and remains anonymous. Depreciation of the management assets accrued before 1 January 2012 may be carried forward to be offset against subsequent increase in value for an overall amount of 62.5% of the relevant depreciation.

Any capital gains realised by Security Holders who are Italian resident collective investment funds and SICAVs are not subject to tax.

Any capital gains realised by Security Holders who are Italian resident pension funds will be included in the computation of the taxable basis of Pension Fund Tax.

The 20.0% final substitutive tax may in certain circumstances be payable on capital gains realised upon sale for consideration or redemption of Securities by non-Italian resident persons or entities without a permanent establishment in Italy to which the Securities are effectively connected, if the Securities are held in Italy. However, even if the Securities are held in Italy and regardless of the provisions set forth by any applicable double taxation treaty, pursuant to Article 23 of Decree No. 917, any capital gains realised, by non-Italian residents without a permanent establishment in Italy to which the Securities are effectively connected, through the sale for consideration or redemption of Securities are exempt from taxation in Italy to the extent that the Securities are listed on a regulated market in Italy or abroad and in certain cases subject to filing of required documentation. In case the Securities are not listed on a regulated market in Italy or abroad: (1) as to capital gains realised by non-Italian resident beneficial owners of the Securities with no permanent establishment in Italy to which the Securities are effectively connected, through the sale for consideration or redemption of Securities are exempt from taxation in Italy to the extent that the Securities are listed on a regulated market in Italy or abroad; (2) in any event, non-Italian resident persons or entities without a permanent establishment in Italy to which the Securities are effectively connected fall under the Managed Portfolio regime or the Asset Management regime, exemption from Italian capital gains tax will apply on the condition that they file an appropriate self-declaration within the relevant time limit with the authorised financial intermediary stating that they are resident in a country which allows an adequate exchange of information. Pursuant to Article 5, paragraph 5 of Decree No. 461 and Article 6, paragraph 1, of Decree No. 239, such exemption could apply also to non-Italian residents who are (a) international bodies and organizations established in accordance with international agreements ratified in Italy; (b) foreign institutional investors, even though not subject to income tax or to other similar taxes, established in countries which allow an adequate exchange of information with Italy and (c) Central Banks or entities also authorised to manage official reserves of a State. (2) In any event, non-Italian resident persons or entities without a permanent establishment in Italy to which the Securities are effectively connected that may benefit from a double taxation treaty with the Republic of Italy, providing that capital gains realised upon the sale or redemption of the Securities are to be taxed only in the country of tax residence of the recipient, will not be subject to the "substitutive tax" in the Republic of Italy on any capital gains realised upon sale for consideration or redemption of Securities; in this case, if non-Italian residents without a permanent establishment in Italy to which the Securities are effectively connected fall under the Managed Portfolio regime or the Asset Management regime, exemption from Italian capital gains tax will apply on the condition that they file the appropriate documents within the relevant time limit with the authorised financial intermediary which include, inter alia, a statement from the competent tax authorities of the country of residence of the non-Italian residents.

Atypical securities

According to the provisions of the Terms & Conditions of the Securities, the Security Holder may receive an amount lower than the invested amount or lower than zero. Thus it is possible that Securities may not be qualified as (1) bonds or as debentures similar to bonds pursuant to Article 44, paragraph 2(C) of Decree No. 917 or as (2) securitised derivatives under Article 67 of Decree No. 917, thus the Securities could be considered as 'atypical' securities pursuant to Article 8 of Law Decree No. 512 of 30 September 1983 as implemented by Law No. 649 of 25 November 1983. In this event, payments relating to Securities may be subject to an Italian withholding tax, levied at the rate of 20.0%.

The withholding tax mentioned above does not apply to payments made to a non-Italian resident Security Holder and to an Italian resident Security Holder which is (i) a company or similar commercial entity (including the Italian permanent establishment of foreign entities), (ii) a commercial partnership, or (iii) a commercial private or public institution.

The withholding is levied by the Italian intermediary appointed by the Issuer, intervening in the collection of the relevant income or in the negotiation or repurchasing of the Securities.

Inheritance and Gift Taxes

Italian inheritance and gift taxes were formerly abolished by Law no. 383 of 18 October, 2001 in respect of gifts made or succession proceedings started after 25 October 2001. Inheritance and gift taxes have been reintroduced by Law Decree no. 262 of 3 October 2006, subsequently amended and supplemented by the Budget Law for 2007. On basis of the Budget Law for 2007 the transfer by inheritance of the Securities in respect of succession proceeding started from 3 October 2006 is subject to the inheritance tax at the following rates: (i) 4% if the transfer is made to spouses and direct descendants or ancestors; in this case, the transfer to each beneficiary is subject to taxation if the value exceeds Euro 1,000,000; (ii) 6% if the transfer is made to brothers and sisters; in this case, the transfer to each beneficiary is subject to taxation if the value exceeds Euro100,000; (iii) 6% if the transfer is made to relatives up to the fourth degree, to persons related by direct affinity as well as to persons related by collateral affinity up to the third degree; and (iv) 8% in all other cases. If the transfer is made in favor of persons with severe disabilities, taxation will apply only if the value of the transaction exceeds Euro 1,500,000. The transfer of the Securities by reason of gift occurred from 29 November 2006 is subject to the gift tax at the following rates: (i) when the donee is the spouse or a relative in direct lineage, the value of the Securities gifted to each beneficial exceeding € 1,000,000 is subject to a 4% of gift tax; (ii) when the donee is a relative within the fourth degree or is a relative-in-law in direct line and other relatives-in-law in collateral lineage up to the third degree, the value of the Securities gifted to each beneficial is subject to a 6% of gift tax; and (iii) when the donee is a person not listed under previous points (i) and (ii), the value of the Securities gifted to each beneficial is subject to a 8% of gift tax. When the donee is the spouse or a relative in direct lineage and the transfer of the Securities by reason of gift occurs from 3 October 2006 to 28 November 2006 the value of the Securities gifted to each beneficial exceeding € 100,000 is subject to a 4% of gift tax. When (a) the beneficial is the brother or the sister, and (b) the agreement through which the Securities are transferred by reason of gift is filed for registration starting from 1st January 2007, the value of the Securities transferred to each beneficial exceeding € 100,000 is subject to a 6% of gift tax.

Tax Monitoring Obligations

Italian resident individuals, partnerships (other than società in nome collettivo, società in accomandita semplice or similar partnerships) not carrying out commercial activities, professional associations and public and private entities, other than companies, not carrying out commercial activities will be required to report in their yearly income tax return ("UNICO" tax form, RW section), for tax monitoring purposes: the amount of Securities (and of other investments held abroad and foreign financial assets generating foreign source income taxable in Italy) held at the end of each tax year, if exceeding in the aggregate € 10,000.00 each year; and the amount of any transfers from abroad, to abroad and occurred abroad, related to the Securities (and to other investments held abroad and foreign financial assets generating foreign source income taxable in Italy), occurring during each tax year, if exceeding in the aggregate € 10,000.00 each year. This also is the case if at the end of the tax year the Securities (or other investments held abroad and foreign financial assets generating foreign source income taxable in Italy) are no longer held by the above-mentioned subjects. The above subjects will however not be required to comply with the above reporting requirements in respect of Securities deposited for management or administration with qualified Italian financial intermediaries as defined by Italian law and in respect of contracts entered into through the intervention of financial intermediaries, upon condition that the items of income derived from the Securities are collected through the intervention of the same intermediaries.

Stamp duty and Tax on financial activities held abroad

Law Decree No. 201 of 22 December 2011 ("Decree 201"), which introduced several new tax provisions, two of which having material consequences with regard to the Securities, namely (i) the extended stamp duty on all kind of financial activities ("Stamp Duty") and (ii) the tax on financial activities held abroad (so called "IVAFE").

Stamp Duty is applicable on all kind of financial assets, including the Securities. The tax shall be levied at 0.1% rate for the year 2012 and 0.15% rate as from 2013 (with a limit up to € 4,500 for holders different from individual) on the fair market value or, if failing, on the book or redemption value as at 31 December of each year. Stamp Duty is generally applied by the financial intermediary, if such entity intervene in the administration/management of the Securities. IVAE is applicable on the value of financial assets held abroad Italy by Italian tax resident individuals. The tax is applied at a rate equal to 0.1% for the years 2011 and 2012 and 0.15% as from 2013, on the fair market value as at 31 December of each year. IVAE should be applicable in case the financial activities do not fall within the Stamp Duty scope. The tax is calculated, disclosed in the yearly tax return and paid by the individual directly.

Transfer tax

General

Law Decree no. 248 as of 31 December 2007 provided for the repeal of the transfer tax (tassa sui contratti di borsa). As a result, starting from 31 December 2007 the disposal of Securities does not trigger the application of such transfer tax anymore. The Law no. 228 as of December 24, 2012 introduced a stamp duty on certain financial transactions (the "Tobin Tax"). The Italian Ministry of Finance issued an implementing Decree in 2013 to set forth the details of the new tax regime. In general terms the Tobin Tax applies to transactions, even if executed abroad, involving shares, bonds converted in shares and equity financial instruments issued by both listed and non-listed companies resident in Italy and derivatives substantially underlying such securities. More specifically, the Tobin Tax is applicable on the transfer of ownership relating to (i) shares, issued by companies which have their registered office in the territory of the Italian State (it should be noted that certain exemptions are provided by the law e.g., regarding intercompany transactions; or listed shares issued by companies having an average market capitalization of less than Euro 500 millions); (ii) financial equity instruments as defined pursuant to Article 2346(6) of the Italian Civil Code and issued by companies which have their registered office in the territory of the Italian State; (iii) securities representing such financial instruments (e.g. warrants, covered warrants, certificates), without considering the residence of the parties to the transaction; and (iv) shares deriving from the conversion of bonds. Tobin Tax is applied a rate of 0.2% on transaction regarding shares and other participating instruments issued by Italian resident companies. The tax rate is reduced down to 0.1% if the transfer is executed on regulated financial markets or through multilateral negotiation systems. On a temporary basis for the fiscal year 2013, the tax rates are increased by 0.02% (i.e. 0.22%, 0.12%, respectively).
